

GIFT OF Mrs. Charles M. Hussey
TO THE
NEW BEDFORD
FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY
IN MEMORY OF HER FATHER
William R. Wing

Aurasthonks.

- 1864-5
(Part 2) 8/32

100

mao

2

Dec-1864=87¹¹/₁₁
year of hundred 89¹¹/₁₁

July 65=the 90th

Blank lined paper with faint, illegible handwriting visible through the paper.

Bark Swallow on a Whaling
Thursday August 4th 1864

Begins with a fine breeze from the S E
steering N N W all soil one soil in sight middle part light breeze steering N by E all soil
at 7 o'clock kept off N W by W made the land ahead
better part light breeze and fine weather
3 soil in sight steering in for Bonaville

Latitude 7° 58' S

Longitude 34° 30' W

Friday 5th

Barometer 29° 65

Begins with a fine breeze from the S E
steering in W by S for Bonaville all soil
at 7 o'clock came to anchor in 8 fathoms water and started the soil middle fine better part went on shore employed on board breaking out water after hold and putting in the fore hold

Saturday 6th Begins with fine weather wind
S E at 4 o'clock the Launch came on board with the Provins took them on board and began to stow them away at night gave it up and put fine better part clear stowed away the Provins
Sunday 7th Begins

Begins with a calm at 2 o'clock a light breeze from the S E got under way and steered to sea heading E N E at 5 o'clock turned to S by W stowed the anchors middle part heading S by W and a light breeze at 4 o'clock a light breeze from W steering S E at 9 o'clock wind from E S E heading some squally and squally a fresh breeze
heading S E all soil Lat 8° 45' S
Barometer 29° 68

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1864

Monday August 8th 1864

Begins with a fresh breeze from E to E by N & heaving squally weather heaving from SSE to SE & all soil at 3 cables at night took in light soil in middle part a light breeze cleared up heaving & latter part fine all soil employed picking over Potatoes and other side jobs

Latitude 9.19 S

Longitude 35.35 W

Tuesday 9th

Barometer 29.72

Begins with a light breeze from the SE heaving S & some soil in sight employed at odd jobs at 3rd Bell. Spoke Banks Level Both in view of Bathmen and the British Flag from Becqueray's few Porters sails put a strong force SE to SE on both tacks latter part heaving from SSW to SW squally light soil in current few top yellow soil appeared & but it was within sight

Latitude 9.42 S

1 B. 1 Perk

Longitude 34.45 W

Wednesday 10th

Barometer 29.72

Begins with a strong breeze from SE to SSE heaving from SSW to SW some squally light soil in middle part a fresh breeze and clear latter part much the same heaving S by E employed at odd jobs

Latitude 10.34 S

Longitude 35.20 W

Barometer 29.75

Boat Swashbunks on a Whaling.

Thursday August 11th 1864

Begins with a fresh breeze from the SE
heeling SW by S tacked to E by N then so in sight at 7 P.M. tacked to SSW middle part wind shifting on both tacks latter part squally heeling from SSE to SSW
one steamer in sight steering SW

Latitude 40.57 S

Longitude 35.25

Friday 12th

Barometer 29.75

Begins with a fresh breeze from the
E to SSE and squally heeling from S
SE to SSW light sails except fly gill middle part strong and light breezes
some squalls heeling SSW latter part strong squalls took in fly gill and we put her top sail heeling from S to SSW two sail on a steamer steering SSW

Latitude 12.00 S

Longitude 36.00 W

Saturday 13th

Barometer 29.75

Begins with a strong breeze from the SE and squally heeling SSW middle part fresh breeze some squally some light winds and some of all sorts latter part watch employed breaking out water fish and setting them overboard heeling SSW fresh breezes

Latitude 12.52 S

Longitude 36.20 W

Barometer 29.75

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1864

Sunday August 14th 1864

Begins with a fresh breeze from the SE and fine weather heading SSW all soil sampled previously, middle but equally some heading SSW light soils in latter part strong breeze some squally

Latitude 13.56 S

Longitude 37.00 W

Monday 15th

Barometer 29.77

Begins with a strong breeze from the S
by E heading S by W all soil sampled from S to S soil middle but heading from S by W to the SSW
by S latter part about the main top soil to appear at soil in sight heading SSW

Latitude 14.46 S

Longitude 37.30 W

Tuesday 16th

Barometer 29.75

Begins with a fine breeze from the S heading SSW by W and WSW 3 soil in sight fine but and about the main top soil and at main top G.
soil at 6 fathoms to E all soil sampled heading S light breeze latter part calm except appearing and speaking over soil

Latitude 14.40 S

Wednesday 17th

Longitude 37.30 W Barometer 29.72

Begins with a calm except appearing and speaking and washing off outside fine but speaking at 3 light breeze
from SSW heading S all soil middle but wind headed to E SE then to S latter part heading from the SSW light breeze with employed pointing ship outside

Lat 15.03 S

Long 37.30 W Barom 29.75

Bear's Ovenshanks on a Whaling

Thursday August 18th 1864

Begins with a light breeze from S E heading ing S W to W S W at 3 P M. Finishes heading at 4 wind S E one sail in sight middle part heading S by W. Letters put S W watch end Nothing out and stowing up between decks
over Pantom in sight

1 Key Butter 55^{lbs} Lat. 16.08 S

Friday 19th

Long. 37.50 W Barometer 29.77

Begins with a light breeze from S E to S E heading from S S W to S W by W all sail with sail hoisted stowing up between decks all sail
two sail in sight at 6 o'clock to E middle part light breeze heading S E to N E by E at 5 O'clock hoisted to S by W. Letters put out the Waist Boat & took in the old one with the employed variously heading from S S to S W
by W. Hunt went like whips hauled head gear.
Lat. 16.28 S

1 Beef 1 Pork

Long. 38.00 W

Saturday 20th

Barometer 29.75

Begins with a light from the S heading W S W put up new chain top. Both stays visible put wind & sail light steering S E. Letters put wind N E steering S E employed setting up Mizen. Back stays and other odd jobs light air and fine weather

Latitudes 17.11 S

Longitude 37.55 W

Barometer 29.75

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean P. I. Wing.

Sunday August 21st 1864

Begins with a light breeze from the NE
steering S by E all sail employed setting up Bob stay, Bow Spirit Shrouds &c middle put a light breeze heading S by E to the port wind E to E NE Steady S by E all sail & 5 feet in sight
Latitude 18° 15' S

Longitude 37° 40' W

Monday 22nd

Barometer 29° 77

Begins with a fine breeze from the ENE
steering S by E all sail middle put a fine breeze better put much the same wind NE all clearing ing sail employed previously 1st 1st

Lat 20° 06' S

1st of Molasses

Long 37° 30' W

Tuesday 23rd

Barometer 29° 80

Begins with a fine breeze from the NE Stee ring S by W all sail employed setting head stay and painting masts over head middle put much the same with some light squalls Steady S by W to the put employed lowering up fore top mast back stays repairing lower over head &c on sail.

Lat 21° 51' S Long 38° 00' W

Wednesday 24th

Barometer 29° 85

Begins with a fine breeze from the NNE and fine weather Steady S by W all sail employed setting up fore top back stays and fitting lower over head 2nd 1st middle put much the same better put wind NE employed setting up main top Mast stays &c

No observations this day

Barometer 29° 70

Bank Anishkeno on a Whaling
Thursday August 25th 1864

Begins with a strong breeze from the N
streaming S W all morning soil employed at odd jobs at night double reefed middle put fresh braces latter part clear & cooler weather some rain all soil at 11 miles SW at 12 Tacked to W by N

No observation this day

Friday 26th

Barometer 29.65

Begins with a fresh breeze from the SSE
to S and clear cloudy weather some rain
heaving from W to WSW at all soil 3 fathoms in sight employed setting up chain strops. At night took in soil middle put a light breeze
from the SSE clear gloomy weather latter part much the same all soil wind heaved to E and soil in sight

No observation this day

Barometer 29.75

Saturday 27th Begins with a fresh breeze
from the E and some squally streaming S W soil at night double reefed middle put a fine breeze latter part all soil employed breaking out water much & on one soil in sight a heavy swell from the SW.

Latitude 25.46 S

Longitude 41.20 W

Barometer 29.80

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1864
Sailed August 28th 1864

Begins with a fine fresh breeze from the ENE steering S W all sail employed at odd jobs one sail in sight. at night double reefed middle sail as strong breeze steering S W by W better put much the same all sail

Latitude 27.02 S

Longitude 43.08 W

Monday 29th

Barometer 29.75

Begins with a strong breeze from the ENE
steering S W by W all clearing sail at night clear reefed as strong gale middle sail much the same better put wind NNE and rising and blowing strong and a heavy sea or

No Observation this day

Tuesday 30th

Barometer 29.57

Begins with a strong gale from the NNE and rising steering S W by W clear reefed top sail
at night wind moderates took in top sail middle and better put light baffling air and small rain

1 Bl. Buf. 1 Bl. Rain? No Obs Barometer 29.72

Wednesday 31st Begins with a light baffling air from NE to S steering S W all sail at night took in sail middle put light breeze some rain steering S W wind principally from the E to ENE better put lighted up some wind ENE much sail steering S W by S over sail in sight. very clear looking weather
No Observation this day
Barometer 29.72.

Barb & I went on to our whaling
Thursday September 1st 1864

Begins with a strong breeze from the ENE to E strengthening S W by W some rain dark cloudy weather at night took all soil and left too hard dry S E by S middle part strong breeze and some light rain better part strong gales and had squalls at 12 lighted up some got a latitude
Latitude 30° 17' S

Longitude 47° 10' W

Friday 2nd

Barometer 29° 65

Begins with a strong gale from the ENE
heaving S E and S E by S. evening clear we feel rain top soil and storm soils and a plant of light rain squalls. middle part weather about the same wind heaving to N at 5 AM wind heaved to S W better part strong gales and strongly heaving from WNW to NW set clear and fair. Top soil useful few soil &c and clearing up

Latitude 30° 26' S

Longitude 47° 10' W

Saturday 3rd

Barometer 29° 52

Begins with a strong breeze from WSW
heaving NW set gale & squalls at night took in soil some ship to S middle part a light breeze
and strong breeze heaving S better part a strong breeze double squalls as well from SW ship heaving SSW amply at odd jobs

Latitude 30° 51' S

Longitude 47° 10' W

Barometer 29° 65

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

Sunday September 4th 1864

Begins with fresh breeze from the N and a swell from S W heeling S W. Bubble cups get main soil and Spunkin shook reefs out. At 10 P.M. soil at night took in soil middle part came to the point a light air from N E Steering S W by S. Spunkin overboard broke in the bow to the larboard. Mr. Carter took employed making another one from one of the cutting shovels. Lat 31.04 S

Long 47.35 W

Monday 5th

Barometer 29.70

Begins with a fine breeze from N E and heeling to E S E Steering S W employed fitting on cut-ting & filling the boat down all soil at 4 P.M. finished it and set up the Mah story then found the in upper Mah story strap broke off, lashed him up as solid as possible at night a strong breeze took in all soil and left too heeling S E middle part wind heeled to N E at 8 P.M. kept off S W better down clearly and a strong gale employed getting out water and making both story straps. Lat 32.00 S Long 48.08 W

Tuesday 6th

Barometer 29.50

Begins with a strong gale from N E Steering S W down clearly weather at night took in soil and left too heeling heeling E S E running land middle part moderate rain at 5 P.M. wind heeled to S W and blowing a gale better part strong gales heeling N W by N at 12 noon clear reefs &c at 12 were ship to S by W. down and strong gales. Lat 32.17 S Long 48.22 W
Barometer at 3 P.M. 29.25 at 5 P.M. 29.45

Bark Swallow on a Whaling

Wednesday September 7th 1864

Begins with a strong gale from the W by S heading S by W clear with 30 30 ft in sight at night took in soil more ship to WNW middle part most interesting at 7 clock calm and cloudy dark weather latter part a fresh breeze clouds with 80 rising as heavy swell from SSE bent New arrival top reef hauled & fire light

Sugar 3 cwt No Obs Barometer 29.50

Thursday 8th Begins with a strong breeze from the S and a heavy swell from the SSE heading WNW & NW by N rising and blowing took in soil at 4 1/2 clock took in few soil at 6 took in main top soil middle part blowing hard in squalls latter part moderating set main top soil & reefed few soil heading N by W and clear weather some small squalls a heavy sea

Lat 31.37 S

1 Cask 15 Bags Flour

Long 48.10 W

Friday 9th

Barometers 29.75

Begins with a strong gale from S by W heading N by W moderating some at 4 top soil gale & fresh at 4 1/2 clock wind S by S more ship to by W at night took in soil at calm middle part a breeze from the N by W steering SW latter part a strong breeze and fine clear weather double reefed steering SW employed at odd jobs

Latitude 32.13 S

Longitude 48.50 W

Barometers 29.75

1 Bl Bag 1 Bl Flour

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean.

Saturday, September 10th 1864

Begins with a strong breeze from N.N.W. Steer
S.W. double reef main sail & gibe at 4 P.M. wind
N.N.W. once sail in sight at night took in sail middle part wind from the N.W. and back to W.S.W. and blowing on latter part a strong gale and vessel heeling S by E close reef & fore sail

Lat. 32.53 S

Long 49.10 W

Sunday 11th

Barometer 29.80

Begins with a strong gale from W.S.W. and vessel heeling S by E close reef & at night we ship to W.N.W. and took in sail heeling W.N.W. at 11
wind W. we ship to S.W. wind heeled to N. latter part a strong breeze and clear Steering
S.W. by W double reef main sail & gibe on sail

Lat. 33.13 S

Long. 49.50 W

Monday 12th

Barometer 29.70

Begins with a strong breeze from the N. and clear weather Steering S.W. by W double reef & at one sail in sight at night took in sail and left to the wind under close reef main top sail fore top and stay sail and main span heeling W.N.W. blowing strong middle were moderate wind heeled to N.W. at 4 P.M. thick fog at 9 P.M. off under sail latter part wind heeled to S.W. heeling S by E sail in sight

Lat. 34.08 S

Longitude 50.30 W

Barometer 29.55.

Banks & Overton who are in Whaling
Tuesday September 13th 1864

Begins with a breeze from SSW heading SE at 1 P.M. wind S and breezing on at 3 took in main sail and close reefed the main top sail at 4 took in gill & spanker heaving & SE at night was ship to S by W and took in sail, middle part strong gale heading from S by W to W latter part strong gale heading WNW close reef and stay sails &c

Lat 34° 08 Long 50° 48 W

Wednesday 14th Barometer 29.77

Begins with a strong gale from the SSW heading WNW close reef &c set reefed fore sail and spanker at night took in sail and move ship to SE by S middle part a strong breeze and a heavy swell from the S latter more moderate close reef main sail gill & spanker
two sail watch employed, towing down and building up the front try masts rebuilt the New Speenkel and bent the old one.

Motors?

Lat 34° 08 S Long 50° 40 W

Thursday 15th

Barometer 29.82

Begins with but strong and light breeze from SSW and a heavy swell from S heading SE by E sail as above at 4 P.M. finished try masts move ship to W by N at night took in sail middle part calm and a light breeze from the NNE latter put fresh breeze every sail employed put on bob stay sharp and taking up Bob stays two sail

Lat 34° 22 S Long 50° 50 W

Barometer 29.72

Shipping to the Atlantic Ocean

Friday Sept. Nov 16th 1864

Begins with a strong breeze from NNE to NE heaving from NW to NNW clouds reefs &c at night took in soil and more ship to E & E Middle part strong gale wind heaved to NNE latter part stronger gales
close reefs reef 7th soil &c one soil in sight

Lat 34° 37' S Long 50° 45' W

Saturday 17th

Barometer 29.55

Begins with strong gales from the NNE and veered at 1 PM took in fore top soil spunk at 2 and 3rd top stay soil at 4 took in fore soil at 6 took in main top soil middle part blowing and veer with a heavy sea one latter part veer veering some wind heaved to N still veering

No Observation this day

Sunday 18th

Barometer 29.35

Begins with a strong gale from the N and light with a heavy swell from the NE heaving
E NE to E under main spunk and fore stay soil cleared up some middle part wind heaved
to E W light latter part a strong breeze heaving NNW close reefs &c dark cloudy weather and a heavy swell from the NE

No Observation this day

Barometer 29.40

Monday 19th Begins with a strong breeze from E W heaving NNW close reefs &c dark gloomy weather at 2 began to rain and began up at night took in all soil but spunk & 3rd stay soil middle latter a veer heaving a N W cleared up ends heavy squalls and high sea

Lat 33.55 S Long 49.50 W

Barometer 29.45

Brack Overhauled on Whaling

Tuesday September 20th 1864.

Begins with a gale of wind and heavy squalls from W S to W and a heavy sea from W S W Laying under main spar and main stay sail heaving from NW by W to NW by N and the port revolutionizing set down top sail bottom part double reefed at 10 were ship to S S W set main sail and gale one sail.

1 Reef 1 Barb

Lat 34° 04' S Long 50° 00' W

Wednesday 21st

Barometer 29.65

Begins with a strong breeze from the W heaving S S W double reefed a heavy swell from S S W at night took in sail middle part light breeze bottom part light breeze from the NW heaving W S W all about the 1st sail to reefers

Lat 34° 22' S Long 49° 55' W

Thursday 22nd

Barometer 29.70

Begins with light breeze from the NW all sail heaving W S W finished and sent the 1st sail at night took in sail calms middle part a light breeze from the N E heaving N W by N Latter part a fine breeze from E N E steering W all clearing sail with crew layed working out Reef after 10 o'clock starting it and boiling the Pickle making Pickle and unpacking and resetting it over Forty Barrels and Thirty Nine of them with not a particle of salt in them and the most of it smelling very strong

Lat 34° 07' S Long 50° 25'

Barometer 29.70

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1864

Monday September 23rd 1864

Begins with a fine breeze from the ENE
steering it with running sail to work at 10
and stowing it back after heave at 3 30 M. fine island taken in sail and kept too heaving S E
the sail is sight middle part a strong breeze
from the NE latter part fresh breeze steering S W

Lat 34° 49' S Long 51° 20' W

Tuesday 24th

Barometer 29° 60

Begins with a fresh breeze from the NE steering
S W heavy cloudy weather at night took in sail and kept too heaving E S E middle part strong gale some rain some fog some light breeze latter part strong breeze very thick

No observation this day

Wednesday 25th

Barometer 29° 37

Begins with a strong breeze from the N and
a regular thick rainy weather at 3 wind heaved to NW heaving N W at 5 a light breeze from S E middle part a gale and heave over latter part latter part rain top sail and reefed fore sail heaving S W by W one sail in sight

Lat 35° 44' S Long 52° 12' W

Thursday 26th

Barometer 29° 70

Begins with a strong gale from the S E heaving
from S W to W S W two sail in sight at night took in sail middle part moderate at day light made sail one sail in sight at 10 Spoke Bark Calico Howland one Right whales
fin in water and light rain from the E S E

Lat 35° 51' S Longitude 53° 05' W

Barometer 29° 75

Beirh adventures on a whaling
Tuesday September 27th 1864

Begins with a calm, sunset the old chain
top soil seen, but the better one at night took in soil the bulwarks close by, middle part calm latter part a light breeze from NNE the wind & all soil bristling out water &c

Filled the Mues ^{Bar} Lat 35.41 S Long 53.10 W

286 Gallons ^{Bar} Pipe

Barometer 29.68

Wednesday 28th Begins with a light breeze
from the NNE steering from S to S by E all soil the 6 in sight at night took in soil and left too heaving, WNW middle part a light breeze latter part a fresh breeze all soil at 12 fathoms 50 fathoms touched the ENE

Latitude 35.57 S

Longitude 53.35 W 40

Thursday 29th

Barometer 29.55

Begins with a fine breeze from the N heaving & NE all soil two soil in sight at 3/4 p
all spoke the bulwarks at night took in soil
middle part calm latter part a light breeze
from SSW heaving on both sides close cloudy weather a strange Whaler in sight
No Observation

72 fathoms Water

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1864

Friday September 30th 1864 1 B 1 Pk

Begins with a fine breeze from the SSW Reading Weather sail at 4 P.M. Speke Bush Balance sail of Log Green breeze. At about the clear stood to the S E at night strong gales took in soil reading W middle part strong breeze. Latter part strong breeze in both top soils & on both tanks & soil in sight Whale

Lat 35.36 S Long 53.10 W 50 to 60 f

Saturday October 1st Barometer 29.72

Begins with a strong breeze from the South
Reading S E at 4 P.M. more ship to W at night
South aspect middle part on both tanks latter of it light view & clear heading S E all soil ends
on line & soil in sight.

Lat 35.30 S Long 53.08 W 35 fathoms

Sunday 2nd Barometer 29.75

Begins with a light view from the S by S heading by 8 all soil at night took in soil middle part heading from S to S E clouds were cloudy at 6 left the off S at 9 saw one Whale. Several were started thick and very common on board.

No Obs Barometer 29.60 W 72 fathoms

Monday 3rd Begins with a breeze from NE thick and calm. Tying Weather. Yards aback at 4 took in soil heading S E. middle part wind headed to W & S W by the N wave ship heading from S W to S E at 6 at all wave. Ship to W at 8 saw a Whale and two soil shot in thick could not keep the view of him out both tanks at 12 left the view

Lat 36.12 S Long 53.10 W

Barometer 29.60 No Bottom

Boat Shovelers over a Whaling

Tuesday October 4th 1864

Begins with a strong breeze from the SSW
heaving M. Scudle up at 1 P.M. saw a whale tornel 3 Boats crew chased it towing on the
at a yoke at 2 P.M. up the Boats at night took in soil heaving E & SE middle part on both sides a strong breeze and regular but not all but light soil heaving SE strong winds & regular 3 soil

Lat 36° 04' Long 53° 10' W.

Wednesday 5th

Barometer 29.72

Begins with a strong breeze from the SSW
heaving SE a heavy swell from the S at 1 P.M.
wind heaved to SE more than to SSW by 4 got out water at 4 P.M. wind heaved to SSW again at night took in soil middle part on both sides 4 soil in sight water employed in digging old top soil dark cloudy weather with some spots of sunshine. 9 57 Fathoms

Lat 36° 02' Long 53° 55' W.

Thursday 6th

Barometer 29.70

Begins with a clear wind cloudy & raining 9th finished the top soil about the 4th top soil and about the one part upwind at night took in soil heaving S to SSW middle part light breeze
and some rain squalls but not all soil heaving on both sides a heavy swell from the S & SE 4 soil in sight

Latitude 35° 58' S

Longitude 53° 30' W

Barometer 29.80

70 Fathoms Water

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1864
Friday October 7th 1864

Begins with a fresh breeze from the ESE heading NE we begin, sail from ESE spoke the Mach. John A. spoke 230 S 180 W heading SSW at 4 Bell touched to NNE wind E at night took in soil middle part on both tacks latter put all soil heading SSE employed reefing etc
at top soil 2 soil in sight light breeze
1 B 1 B
Saturday 8th Barometer 29.85
Lat 36.20 S Long 53.25 W

Begins with a light breeze from the E head ing SSE we ship to NNE employed reefing
top soil at 4 Bell finished spoke the Calcutta night took in soil middle part heading SSE at 8 Bell touched to NNE all soil latter put fresh five lines over soil in sight wind ENE
80 to 45 fathoms? Lat 36.12 S Long 53.25 W
Sunday 9th Barometer 29.85

Begins with a fresh breeze from ENE steering by the wind heading NE all soil at night took in soil were ship to S E middle part four latter part a strong breeze top soil courses 30 two soil in sight at 11 Bell the reefed top soil
at 12 waves ship to N
Latitude 36.26 S
Longitude 53.15 W
Barometer 29.80

From 65 to No fathoms

29.85 at 11
29.85 at 12

Bark Arrowheads in Whaling
Monday October 10th 1864

Begins with strong breeze from the E N E heading N at 1 P M 2 bells up & down
top soil at 4 saw a Merchantman steering S W at night took in soil middle part on both tracks bottom part heading N and N by W all soil and fine weather. Lat 36.13 S.

Longitude 53.20 W

Tuesday 11th

Barometer 29.75

Begins with a fine breeze from the E N E heading N & N by W all soil at night took in soil more Ship to S E 38 fathoms middle part a fresh breeze bottom part a fine from N E by N strong S W by S all drawing soil

Latitude 36.25 S

From 67 to 70 fath? Longitude 53.50 W

Wednesday 12th

Barometer 29.75

Begins with a fine breeze from the N E by N steering S W by S all drawing soil at 2 P M saw a Whale sunk & began marked Belugas
one soil in sight then for him to S E at 4 P M
one more soil at spoke the place for one whale
at 8 spoke the Belugas took in soil middle part on both tracks bottom part calm and light airs two soil in sight dark cloudy weather got out water and with a light breeze from the N E

Latitude 36.39 S

Longitude 54.00 W

Barometer 29.78

85 fathoms

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

Thursday October 13th 1864

Begins with a light breeze from the N.E. heavy N.N.W. sea which dark heavy and swomy water all soil at 1/2 P.M. lowered 6 Boats struck and billed got the Bow Boat stove and Mr Baker Leg broken both above and below the knee took in the Boat at 6 P.M. took the Whale along side put out another Boat and took in soil to clear surface near top soil and have top mud & stay soil middle put some seeing at 6 P.M. looked on to the Whale at 11 finished eating some sleep

Lat 36° 33'

Long 80° 33'

Tom Howard

Long 80 Fathoms Water

Friday 14th

Barometer 29.72

Begins with a light breeze from the N.N.E.
Leading N.W. under some soil began boiling at 2 P.M. calm and thick fog middle and better put calm and thick fog and lightning if some soil in sight shot in thick again 80 Fathoms Water

No Observation

Saturday 15th

Barometer 29.60

Begins with a light breeze from the S.W. and thick fog Boiling under short soil middle put calm & fog better put a light breeze from N.N.E. to N.W. when day from N.W. to W.S.W. thick fog finished Boiling

No Observations this day

Barometer 29.45

Soundings at 7 P.M. No bottom at 90 Fathoms

" " 6 P.M.

Banks - Successors to Banks in a Whaling
Sundays October 16th 1864

Begins with a moderate breeze from the N W by NW heaving S W by S with an employed clearing up thick fog every soil at 8 P.M. at up a light breeze from the S W with a better breeze from the NW heaving
W S W all soil two soil in sight

Lat 36.43 S Long 53.43 W

Monday 17th Barometer 29.60

Begins with a light breeze from NW heaving
W S W all soil at 2 P.M. saw what we called Right Whales to Windward wind heaved to S W by S steered to W by S saw two Whales going quick to windward did not lower at night took in soil heaving E S E with a put on both decks at 3 A.M. began to break out and stow down the hatch light breeze
two soil in sight Lat 36.32 S
Long 54.16 W

Tuesday 18th Barometer 29.80

Begins with a light view S E to E heaving from E to N E all hands employed stowing down saw a whale going quick lowered without success at 6 P.M. finished at night took in soil saw two Whales going quick middle put light view once clear better put a light breeze from N E Steering from S E to S W
by S three soil in sight employed sweeping down
repairing Casks &c at 12 Spoke Bremen Bank Twice from Bremen dyers for dyers

Lat 36.25 S Long 53.30 W

Barometer 29.75

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1864

Wednesday October 19th 1864 13 18h

Began with a light breeze from the N.E. Hump
I Wall observing soil employed scraping Bone & at night took in soil saw the Calico tubes a whale middle part heading N head of mts. above at 7 AM saw a Whale pursued 3 boats without success latter part employed repairing Hovers. Boats called in sight
all soil used Lat 36.25 Long 20.00

92nd Fort Thomas Weather? Barometer 29.55

Thursday 20th Began with a fresh breeze from the N.E. by E heading on both tracks clouds cloudy weather employed repairing Boat at 3 PM left off
I W by N at night took in soil heading S E middle part strong breezes and rising latter part a gale of wind and rain and a high sea from the N.
took in about top soil ends notwithstanding

No Observations this day

Barometer 29.10

Friday 21st Began with a gale of wind and rain from E and a heavy sea from the N.
heading S E all rain Spencer & about. Stay soil at 3 PM calm middle part calm and fog at AM at all a strong gale from S.W. heading N soil about top soil and stay soil latter part soil useful. For soil thick heavy fog

No Observations this day

Barometer 29.45

Bark Stow Lumps on a Whaling
Saturday October 22nd 1864

Begins with strong gales from S.W. to S and thick fog under every sail employed repairing Boat & Sounded 60 Fathoms took in the Sail
and wore ship to E & E middle part a fresh gale on both decks bottom part moderate and cleared up some heaving E & E employed at Boat
one sail in sight and clearing up

Lat 36° 06' Long 53° 35' W

53 Fathoms 5 A.M.

Barometer 29° 60

Sunday 23rd Begins with a breeze from the S heaving E & E employed at Boat took out the reefs clear looking weather and heavy fog from the S at 5 P.M. put the Boat over haul at night took to bubble reefs middle part rising calm so bottom put a light breeze from the S & E to S E all sail heaving from S.W. to S.W. two sails in sight fine weather Lat 36° 00' S

Long 53° 40' W

Monday 24th

Barometer 29° 57

Begins with a fine light breeze from the S E heaving S.W. all sail at night took in light sails middle part light air from E to N.E. strong S.W. bottom put steering S.W. by S light air employed repairing Boat finished the Boat came in to rain wind heaving covered by the S to N.E.

No observation this day

at 5 A.M. No Bottom

Barometer 29° 60

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1864

Tuesday October 25th 1864

Begins with a light air from the S. S. and wind hauling round to W. N. W. by the E. fine breeze Bore and put it in the S. S. room and at 3 o'clock the 1st hole at night took in soil middle part wind light and baffling latter part a light breeze from N. W. Steering S. W. by S. S. E.

Lat 36° 23' S Long 53° 40' W.

No Bottom?

Barometer 29.60

Wednesday 26th Begins with a fine light breeze from the N. W. to N. Steering S. W. by S. S. E. at night double sailed at 9 P. M. wind hauled to S. S. W. strong breeze hauling W. middle part light baffling winds latter part all sail hauling N. W. light air employed at old jobs drying Bore & at noon ship to S. E.

No Bottom

Latitude 36° 26' South

1 Cook 17 Boys 1 Stow Longitudes 53° 40' West.

1 Key Water

1 B 1 Pk

Barometer 29.62

Thursday 27th Begins with a light air and calm from the S. W. hauling S. E. and the Bore and put it in the S. S. room at night calm took in soil middle part a light from N. E. to N. Steering S. W.
at day light 80 Fathoms two soil in middle soil Steering S. W. by W. latter part fine breeze

Latitude 36° 37' S

Longitude 54° 05' W

Barometer 29.52

65 Fathoms water at noon?

Barke Sweshoubs on a Whaling
Thurs Octobers 28th 1864

Begins with a fine breeze from the N to NNE steering from S W by S to S by W all soil two soil in sight at night took in soil steering S by W at 2 o'clock took in all soil and left the heading W banks rising Thunder and Lightning at 7 o'clock cleared up some vessels some soil at 9 o'clock fog
wind hauled to SSW wave ship to W cleared up strong breeze Double reefed gills & Spinnaker thus soil
No Bottom at 6 o'clock? Lat 37.15 S

Long 54.35 W

Saturday 29th

Barometer 29.35

Begins with strong breeze from the SSW heading W clear weather Double reefed gills Spinnaker &c at 2 o'clock set sail in soil at night took in soil. Sounded 55 fathoms middle put color at 4 o'clock a light breeze
from WSW heading S at day light 58 fathoms made all soil at 7 o'clock fog Put out the Bow Boat
and took in the other bottom put cleared up wind SSW heading S E over soil in sight of A Rob

Lat 37.03 S Long 54.30 W

Sunday 30th

Barometer 29.45

Begins with a light breeze from the SSW heading S E at 3 o'clock color 85 fathoms at night took in soil
a light breeze from the NE steering S W by S and put wind shifting from NE around to SSW with thick fog some rain Thunder & Lightning latter put a strong gale from S W took in soil to it to clear up soil Main Top soil and 7 soil the J A Rob
to Lancel the Sun in Galipre

Day 1/4 Lat No Bottom? Lat 37.05 S Long 54.30 W

Barometer 29.52

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1864
Monday October 31st 1864

Begins with a gale of wind from the S.W. heading N.W. before 10 AM. Main ship sail & 4th last main spearer clear weather at night took in the sail 55
fathoms. moved ship to S.E. middle part moderating
some shore winds fresh 4th sail they sail 80 empty breaking out small stores at 10 AM the water Bob. They parted the 3rd third Link from the stem employed shackling it together and setting up the they two sail? Lat 36° 32' S.

75 fathoms at Day light? Long 54° 45' W
Barometer 29.60

Tuesday November 1st

Begins with a strong breeze from the S.W.
spoke the J. A. Moh. steered to S.E. doubled vessel 4th sail & Hoove they sail & gibe at 8 took in gibe and move ship to W. middle part more moderate at day light 76 fathoms. Latter part all sail heading from W to W.S.W. all sail at 12 tacked to E.S.E. 45 fathoms
Lat 36° 21' S Long 54° 50' W

Wednesday 2nd

Barometer 29.65

Begins with a fine breeze from the S heading S.E.
all sail at night tacked to W. took in light sail middle part on both tacks. Latter part heading E.S.E. light breeze sets with a light breeze from the S.E. tacked to S.S.W. the J. A. Moh. in sight.

Lat tacked 36.22 S

Long tacked 54.00 W

Barometer 29.65

at Day light 70 fathoms.

Beach Amushon on a Whaling
Thursday ^{September} ~~October~~ 3rd 1864

Begins with a light breeze from the SE and fine clear weather hauling S.W. all soil at night took in some soil two soil in sight
middle part wind light heading from S.W.
to S.W. latter part much the same a heavy sawle from the SE at 12 fathoms to SE picked over the Potatoes Lat 36.41 S

Lat 60 fathoms D Long 54.30 W

Friday 4th Barometer 29.75

Begins with a light breeze from S.E. 11 to S.E.
heading from SE to E all soil arrived safely
at 4 P.M. lowered 55 fathoms spoke the 1st shot at night double reefed middle part light breeze from SE heading S.W. by S and S.W. latter part all soil heading S.W. 3 soil in sight At day light 55 fathoms

Lat 37.02 Long 54.40 W

Saturday 5th Barometer 29.73

Begins with a light breeze from the SE heading
S.W. all soil at night took in to Southwicks middle part wind light from SE to E heading from S.W. to S.E. latter part wind SE and SE all soil heavy S.W. saw the herbar and Bulwer's Chipping a Whale 4 soil in sight one of them after sunset

Latitude 37.41 S

Longitude 55.08 W

Barometer 29.75

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1864.

Sunday November 6th 1864

Begins with a light breeze from the S. S. Steady by 11th all sail set & kept her off W by S. at 6 P.M. Spoke the Calico at night took in sail heading S by E. midall put a light breeze from the E. latter part a fine breeze some closely Steady Full sail two sail in sight 38 Fathoms at day light 65 F at 12th wind ESE

Lat 38°33' S Long 55°31' W

Barometer 29.85

Monday 7th Begins with a fine breeze from the E. N. E. Steady from S. W. to W. Full sail at night took in sail heading N. N. E. midall put on both trunks at day light were all sail at W. S. W. saw a Whale Landed three Boats struck and killed at 11th took him a long side and got ready for butting Saw the J. A. Rob cutter 51 Fathoms?

Lat 38°41' S Long 56°00' W

B. B.

Barometer 29.90

Tuesday 8th Begins with a fine breeze from the S. E. at 1 P.M. looked on to the Whale at 4 P.M. firm but were thick and began boiling
at night took in sail midall put light breeze heading S. latter part all sail heading from S. S.
E. to E. saw the Calico Boiling

Lat 38°47' S

Long 56°00' W

Barometer 29.85

53 Fathoms at Day light

9.11.12.13.14.15.16.17.18.19.20.21.22.23.24.25.26.27.28.29.30.

Barth Amur hunter on a Whaling
Wednesday November 9th 1864

Begins with a light breeze from the NNE
steering S W with sail making at 5 P.M. finished making at 7 P.M. spoke the bellies three Whales took in sail heaving & oblique part heaving from E to ENE at 7 P.M. wore ship to W by N at 8 P.M. Whales lowered 3 Boats at 9 1/2 lowered the 1 Boat and struck and drummed sails with fine breeze from the N
3 Boats in chase to SW Sailed

58 Fathoms 5 A.M. No Observation 16

50 " 7 P.M. Barometer 29.70

Thursday 10th Begins with a fine fresh breeze from the N steering after the Whales from S by W to W going quick 3 Boats in chase at 5 P.M. came on board at night took in sail heaving SW NW middle part on both sides at 6 1/2 A.M. saw a Whales lower 3 Boats struck and Parted line better part strong breeze from N by W heaving W by N

52 Fathoms at 5 A.M. Lat 39.21 S Long 56.30 W

Friday 11th Clear Warm? Barometer 29.55

Begins with a strong breeze from the N by W towards the N E by E at 4 P.M. kept S W by S at night took in sail to close reefed chain top sail dark cloudy weather with plenty of lightning and some rain middle part or at dark saw two Whales middle part and sail wind from S E heaving S W by S strong breeze better part double reef & moderating some

50 Fath 5 A.M. Lat 39.29 S Long 57.00 W

50 " 7 P.M. Barometer 29.80

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1864.
Saturday November 12th 1864.

Begins with a fresh breeze from the S. E. hauling
S. W. wave ship to S. N. E. made all sail empty & saw being done at 3 1/2 P. M. saw Whales several 3 boats without success at night took in sail middle part cedar bottom put a fine breeze from the N. to N. W. all sail leading from W. N. W. to W. S. W. employed hanging out another Coopering 6. 8. 6 at 12 fathoms to N. N. E. Lat 39° 18' Long 57° 00' W
At 5 A. M. 53 Fathoms Barometer 29.65
At 7 P. M. 48. "

Sunday 13th Begins with a fine breeze from the N. W. hauling N. N. E. all sail empty & Coopering on and 1 stowing it below main Hatch at 4 P. M. saw sail finished stowing at night took in sail middle part wind light and hauled to S. W. hauling S. W. at 8 A. M. saw Whales several and began going quick in all directions and saw one sail in sight Lat 38° 43' Long 56° 30' W.
At 8 A. M. 51 Fathoms Barometer 29.50
" 7 P. M. 48. "

Monday 14th Begins with a light breeze from the N. N. W. steering from E. N. E. to E. a good breeze at 1 P. M. took up the boats at 4 saw up with the Whales several 4 boats & all's well. Spoke the J. A. Noble at night took in sail hauling N. W. middle part wind hauled to W. N. W. and a strong breeze better part a clear strong breeze and veered wind W. 2 or 3 times
saw and made nothing more sail
At 5 A. M. 53 Fathoms? Lat 38° 58' Long 56° 55' W.
At 7 P. M. 48. F. 1? Barometer 29.38

100

Received of Mr. J. B. Smith
the sum of $100.00
for rent of land

Witness my hand and seal
this 10th day of July 1880

John B. Smith County Clerk
of the County of Washington
District of Columbia

1875
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the

of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the
of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the
of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the
of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the
of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the

of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the
of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the
of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the
of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the
of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the

of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the
of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the
of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the
of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the
of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the

Barb Arnesen on a Whaling Voyage

Tuesday November 15th 1864

Begins with a strong breeze from the NW to SW heaving from SSW to SSE and SE. sun setting under soil at night calm took in soil middle part calm letting part a fresh breeze from WNW to SW all soil heaving from SW to SE

48 Fathoms 55 A.M.

Lat 39° 23' S. Long 56° 45' W

" 7 P.M.

Barometer 29° 23

Wednesday 16th Begins with a fresh breeze
from the SW heaving SE then to N.W. by W all soil at night then to SSW and took in soil middle part a fresh breeze from the NW heaving WSW at 6 A.M. wind heaved to SSW some whales then to WNW at 8 lowered 8 Boats struck and covered and a strong gale from S to heaving ~~SE~~
all 59 Fathoms Lat 39° 03' S Long 56° 50' W

Barometer 29° 20 Alt 29° 50

Thursday 17th Begins with a strong gale
from the SSE heaving SSW some soil at 4 P.M. spoke the John A. Moh 3 Whales middle part fresh breeze from the N heaving N.E. shot soil at 6 A.M. kept her SSW at 8 P.M. low Whales toward 3 Boats at 10 = 4 Boats chased and forced a strong gale and chasing one soil in sight.

5 A.M. 48 Fathoms? Lat Altitude 39° 11' S.

Longitude 56° 50' W

Barometer 29° 45

Banker's Whaling Voyage
Friday November 18th 1864

Begins with a strong gale from the N 4 Bouts in Chace of the Whales at 1/2 P.M. we on board and stood to E N E at 4 P.M. we shifted to W N W Double reefs took in gill net at night took in soil the Calico & John A. Robe in sight midnight part moderating some wind hauled to N W by N at day light all soil better part strong breeze took in light soil's wind hauled to N.
At 5 A.M. 49 fathoms? Lat 39° 16' S Long 57° 20' W
Barometer 29° 50

Saturday 19th Begins with a fine fresh breeze from the N steering S by W all drawing soil at 3 1/2 P.M. hauled to the wind heading S N E. at night took in soil and thence S W by S until 11 O'clock and left to heading W N W strong breeze better part strong breeze heading W by N and soil in sight at dark cloudy weather wind N N W at 5 A.M. 53 fathoms? Lat 39° 35' S Long 57° 45'
Barometer 29° 45

Sunday 20th Begins with a strong breeze
from the N N W heading W Double reefs &c at dark cloudy weather at 5 P.M. spoke the Rock
at 7 a gale from the N N E took in all soil all day
the part moderating day light made all soil heavy dark weather heading E S E one soil at 11 thick fog Looked the land yards ahead
Lat 39° 48' S Long 57° 40' W by alt
At 5 A.M. 53 fathoms? Barometer 29° 62
At 7 P.M. 53 "

Handwritten text at the top of the page, including a date and a list of items.

Handwritten text in the middle section, including a date and a list of items.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, including a date and a list of items.

Bank Amushonks on a Whaling Voyage
Monday November 21st 1864

Begins with a light breeze from the NE and thick fog. Sailing head yards which heading SSE at 5 P.M. took in sail still thick middle part thick fog and light breeze from the ENE at 7 P.M. lighted up some of the top sails latter part calm employed brushing out water after latter ends thick fog wind light at SSE

No Observation this day.

At 5 A.M. 54 Fathoms. Barometer 29.25

Tuesday 22nd Begins with a light rain
from the ESE and thick fog heading S. At 1 P.M. lighted up wind NE and ship to NNE
at 3 P.M. began to veer at 4 Calm and veering at 5 took in sail at 6 a strong breeze from the SSE heading WNW and SW. Middle part a strong breeze. Latter part cleared up some one seen two sail in sight NW. Took ship

Flotilla Foxelham New Bedford 400 tons
20 1 30 4 Whale Lat 39.54 S

Sail 53 Fathoms. Long 58.50 W

Wednesday 23rd Barometer 29.50

Begins with a fine breeze from the SSE
to SE steering NE by N and NE at night took in sail heading ENE middle part wind light latter part wind light from ENE to N all sail heading from to to NNE 3 sail in sight
Lat 39.14 S

50 Fathoms Sails.

Long 57.30 W

Barometer 29.50

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

1875

Bank Swallow on a Whaling Voyage 1864
Thursday November 24th 1864

Begins with a light air from the NE heading N N W well sail 3 sail in sight at 5 P M spoke the Florida at 6 1/2 the J A Mabe at night took in sail heading E N E Middle put a strong gale latter put a strong gale from the W steering NE
by N 3 sail in sight Double reef at 11 P M gale &
Main sail Lat 38.57 L Long 56.45 W
Alt 51 Fathoms? Barometer 29.30

Friday 25th Begins with a strong breeze
from the W steering N N E Double reef & close out a reef' and set tops gallant sail & fly gale
at 5 P M local a squall from the W took in sail middle put in sail light from S S W heading W latter put all sail steering NE wind headed to E heading N N E

Alt 47 Fathoms? Lat 38.05 L Long 56.10 W
7 P M 50 Fathoms Barometer 29.75

Saturday 26th Begins with a fine breeze
from E by E by N heading N N E & N by E all sail
at night took in sail heading N by W middle alt put on both decks latter put a strong breeze from the N heading E N E at 11 Double reef

Latitude 37.45 S
Longitude 55.05 W

Alt 5 Alt 47 Fathoms? Barometer 29.60

Barth Arrives here on a Whaling
Schooner Nov 27th 1864

Begins with a strong breeze from the N
heading E N E double reef one sail in sight weather clearing up at night took in sail middle part wind backing from N E to S E around by the W at 5 o'clock a fine breeze from the W S W made all sail steering N N E at 9 o'clock
a gale of wind called all hands and took in sail to two close reefed top sails and made everything wind S S W? Lat 37° 32' S Long 54° 55' W
No Bottom Sailed? Barometer 29.75

Monday 28th Begins with a strong breeze
from the S S W steering N N E close reef took two reefs the main top sail and set a main top gallant sail at night took in sail heading W S W? middle part strong breezes or gales at 6 o'clock heaved off N E latter part all sail at 5 o'clock 58 fathoms? Lat 36° 10' S Long 53° 55' W
" 7 Feb 58 " Barometer 29.83

Tuesday 29th Begins with a fresh breeze from the S steering N E and N E by E all sail at night took in sail heading E middle part heading E to E N E latter part all sail steering to N E one sail in sight at 11 o'clock the ship gunned double Cleveland New Bond and 6 o'clock 330 f 354 miles

Latitude 35° 25' S

Longitude 52° 40' W

Barometer 29.72

Observed at day light 72 fathoms

Voyages to the Atlantic Ocean.

Boat Swedish on in Whaling
Wednesday November 30th 1864

Begins with a fine breeze from the S by E heading NE all soil in company with the J. Arnold at night took in soil heading NE by N middle part wind drifting from E to NE at 3 AM calm latter part a fine breeze from the S by E heading NE by N got out weather

Lat 35.00 Long 52.55 W

At 5 AM 70 Fathoms? Barometer 29.66

Thursday December 1st

Begins with a fine breeze from the E by S heading NE by N two observations in sight at night took in soil middle part heading from NNE to NE light showers and light breeze latter part much the same all soil one soil in sight

Latitude 34.30 S

At 5 AM 65 Fathoms? Longitude 52.20 W

Friday 2nd

Barometer 29.48

Begins with light breeze from E to S by E heading from NNE to NE all soil at night took in soil middle part wind light and calm latter part calm and light S by E breeze from all around some very light showers

Latitude 34.07 S

Longitude 52.13 W

At 5 AM 45 Fathoms? Barometer 29.50

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

Admiral Lord Nelson

Captain M. B. ...

...

...

...

...

...

Back Amherst on the Atlantic
Saturday December 3rd 1864

Begins with a calm at 6 P.M. & light breeze from NE heading E & E at night took in soil middle part a fork brown bottom part a strong brown all soil heating E & E seen at Wheels have having been heated

Lat 34.30 S Long 51.35 W

At 5 P.M. 63 Fathoms? Barometer 29.37

Sunday 4th Begins with a strong breeze
from the NE heading E & E all soil heating up at 3 P.M. took in light soil at 5 P.M. top soil's double at night took in soil middle part strong breeze and clear weather day light squally at 7 P.M. wave ship to N by N double wave and a fresh E breeze at 11 P.M. clear fresh wind heeled to NNW wave ship to NE at 12 had a thunder squall took in all soil

No Observation this day

Monday 5th

Barometer 29.23

Begins with a thunder squall of wind and rain from the NNW heading NE at 3 P.M.
clear up some set rain top soil at 4 P.M.
wind W middle part wind W & W heading NW bottom part a fork breeze at all soil one
soil in sight

Latitude 35.01 S.

Longitude 51.25 W

Barometer 29.47.

Back at our looks are a shaking

Tuesday December 6th 1864

Begins with a fresh breeze from the WSW to SW heaving from NW to WNW all sail set at 2 o'clock kept her off N by W at night took in sail heaving WNW made the port light visible and when better part a fine breeze from the WNW heaving N by N by E all sail set in sight

Latitude 34° 06' S

Longitude 51° 35' W

Barometer 29.52

Wednesday 7th Begins with a light breeze and fine weather from WNW to WSW steering N by E at night took in sail heaving NNE which the port heaving from NNE to NE better part all sail heaving NE

Latitude 33° 39' S

Longitude 50° 30' W

Thursday 8th

Barometer 29.55

Begins with a fine light breeze from the NNW heaving NE fine weather at night took in sail heaving E by N made the port a fine breeze heaving E by N better part a fine breeze heaving from E by N to E by S all sail set

Latitude 33° 53' S

Longitude 49° 50' W

Barometer 29.55

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean.

1841

1842

1843

1844

1845

1846

1847

Bark Stows hands on a staking
Friday December 9th 1864

Begins with a fine breeze NE by N to NE heaving from E by S to ESE all sail at night tacked to NWN and took in sail middle part heaving NNW fresh breeze latter part heaving from NNW to NW by W all sail employed washing out water.
3 Sail in sight light breeze

Latitude 33° 37' S

Longitude 49° 45'

Saturday 10th

Barometer 29.45

Begins with a light breeze from the NE
steering W for White's Water at 1 1/2 P.M. left the wind heaving NNW all sail 3 sail
in sight at night took in some sail middle part on both decks latter part heaving
NW all sail employed repaving Boat

Lat 33.22 S Long 50.20 W

Barometer 29.35

Sunday 11th Begins with a fine breeze from the NNE heaving NW all sail at 1 P.M. tacked to E by S saw Grampians and pointed the Boat overhaul at 3 P.M. sail at night doubled sail middle part a strong breeze heaving from E by S to E by N latter part strong breeze calm wind from N by E to ENE dark cloudy weather and a fresh breeze from NE by E heaving N by W saw a sail steering SW

Latitude 33.45 S

Longitude 49.35 W

Barometer 29.30.

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1864

W. H. C. 1864

Boat Anchored on a Whaling
Monday December 12th 1864

Begins with a fresh breeze from the N E by E and clear cloudy weather heading N by W double reef & set 3 Bell cable set.
right took in soil a light breeze from N N W heaving N E middle a fresh breeze from the S S W steering N N E latter part a strong breeze
and cloudy two soil in sight and wind S

Lat 33.03 S Long 49.35 W

Baromet 29.28 = 7 Bell 29.50

Tuesday 13th Begins with a strong gale from the S and cloudy overcast weather steering N E by N whole main & double reefed fore top soil a right took in soil heading E S E middle part moderating latter part strong breeze from
S E heaving E N E double reef & saw 4 soil

Lat 32.23 S Long 48.45 W

Wednesday 14th Baromet 29.65

Begins with strong breeze from S E and clear vexed weather heading E N E double reefed soil gale and spunk seen two soil set right took in soil middle part wind heaved to E N E heaving from E N E to N E 7 Bell took to S E and N E by S latter part all soil with a fine breeze and a heavy swell from the S employed working out between decks and stowing up two soil in sight

Latitude 32.04 S

Longitude 48.30 W

Baromet 29.65

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean.

1844

1844

1844

Bark, Amushank on a Whaling
Thursday December 15th 1864

Begins with a fresh breeze from the E & NE heaving SE by S and SE cold soil a heavy swell from the S employed breaking out and storing up for bark at 4 P.M. first at night took in soil middle part wind heaved
to NE on both tacks latter part a strong gale blowing and rising took in soil raising level
one soil in sight

No Observations this day

Friday 16th

Barometer 29.35

Begins with a strong gale from the NE and heavy rain heaving N N W rain top soil and storm soil at 3 P.M. wind came out SW and to SE and increased to NE middle part wind heaved
up and wind heaved by the N to SW heaving
W N W latter part nearly all soil and blowing on at 11 P.M. double reefed 5 soil in sight

Lat 32.30 S Long 48.50 W

Saturday 17th

Barometer 29.43

Begins with a strong breeze from the SW to W S W heaving W N W to N W at 1 P.M. took gale and stiff soil at 3 clear surface at 4 took in 5 top soil at 5 took in for soil at 6 took in rain top soil blowing heavy middle part wind heaved to S and moderating some latter part made at all soil heaving N S W a heavy swell from SE and wind SE employed breaking out water 1/2 fathoms

Lat 32.04 S Long 49.25 W

Barometer 29.83

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1864

1864
1865
1866

1867
1868
1869

Bark observations on a Whaling
Sunday Dec 18th 1864

Begins with a fine breeze from the SE
blowing NE all soil a heavy swell from the SE employed. Mucking out water & hold and filling the casks with salt water one soil in sight at night took in soil middle part wind heeled to NE heading NNW Lett
in part all soil

Lat 31.15 S Long 49.30 W

Monday 19th Barometer 29.80

Begins with a fresh breeze from the NE heading NNW all soil at 1 P.M. heeled to E & E one soil in sight at 3 P.M. spoke the jaws & avoided nothing since we saw her at night took in soil middle part a strong gale latter part strong gale double reefed
heading SE by E & E SE two soil

Lat 32.09 S Long 49.05 W

Tuesday 20th Barometer 29.75

Begins with a strong gale from the NE hea ding SE by E & E SE took in gale and then soil
two soil in sight at night took in soil mid dle part strong breeze latter part more moderate double reefed gale then soil & spoke two soil in sight

Latitude 33.00 S

Longitude 48.25 W

Barometer 29.83

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

By J. H. ...
...
...

Banks & Swallow on a Whaling
Wednesday Dec 21st 1864

Begins with strong breeze from the NE
heaving E & E a wider single reefs & at night were ship to N N W and took in soil middle part strong brown better part strong beams heaving N N W and N W by N Double reefs &
Lat 32° 48' Long 48° 45' W

Thursday 22nd Barometer 29° 75'

Begins with a strong breeze from the NE by N heaving N W by N Double reefs & at night were ship to E by S and took in soil middle part well weathering at 8 A.M. spoke in Portug wire rig from Lisbon better part light brown all soil heaving S NE

Lat 32° 50' Long 48° 30' W
Barometer 29° 58'

Friday 23rd Begins with a light breeze from the N and heavy weather heaving S NE with soil at night took in soil middle part light
cinn and dark cloudy weather better part veiny and wind light and drifting about whole top soil and so forth

No Observation this day
Barometer 29° 52'

Voyages to the Atlantic Ocean

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

1791-1792

Barb. Divers. on a Whaling
Saturday 25th December 1864

Begins with light airs from ENE to N
and. rising leading from SE to ENE at 2 1/2 PM wind comes over from the SE and strong breeze at night took in sail heading ENE and made put strong gales and made up lettens put strong gales and clear heavy NE close reef made SSE

Lat 32.25 S Long 47.45 W

Sunday 25th

Barometer 29.63

Begins with a strong gale from the SE & Steaming NE Double reef all in sail
and gale at night took in sail and luffed too heading E by N and ENE latter part strong breeze Steaming NE by E

Lat 31.36 S Long 47.15 S

Barometer 29.72

Monday 26th Begins with a strong breeze
from the SE Steaming N at night took in sail and luffed too heading S by S and made put much the same latter part strong breeze heading from W & W to SW Double reef main sail gale & Spun in and played bracing
over water

Latitude 31.05 S

Longitude 47.48 W

Barometer 29.68

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

Page 1

1800

Bank of the river on the wharfing
Thursday December 27th 1864

Begins with a strong breeze from the S.E.
and a heavy snowfall. The wind is from from the S.E. ship heaving S.E. and the
at night took in soil middle part of strong breeze better part strong breeze some squally heaving S.W. S.W. by N. some rain soil 4 ft. & 8 ft.

Lat. 31° 26' S Long 49° 50' W

Barometer 29.62

Wednesday 28th Begins with a strong breeze
from the E. and some squally weather
heaving S. & S.W. with a above set night took in soil middle part strong breeze
rain squally better part much the same heaving S. and soil in sight incl. and E.

Lat. 32° 07' S

Long 49° 35' W

Barometer 29.52

Thursday 29th Begins with a strong breeze from the E. heaving S.E. and the soil & 4 ft. & 8 ft. at night took in soil
middle some light rain squally better part much the same. Soil in sight
Ship heaving S.E. whole top soil &c.

Latitude 33° 06' S

Longitude 49° 56' W

Barometer 29.45

W. J. J. to the Atlantic Ocean

[Faint, illegible handwriting throughout the page, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.]

Bark drawn to the ore & whaling

Thurs December 30th 1864

Begins with a fresh breeze from the E some squally heaving S & E all soil at night took in soil middle light breeze latter part much the same heaving S & E all soil set up the cutter. Bob Hay and took met Stearns and Pump and put on a Copper bottom

Lat 33°44' S Long 49°55' W

Barometer 29°42

Saturday 31st Begins with a light air from the E heaving S & E all soil employed fitting the Pump finished it and put in took out the other and let it down a few inches found the bottom better at 4 P.M. wind N & light heaving E & S at night took in soil middle part light breeze from the NNE heaving E at 8 P.M. were ship to NW all soil employed & sending off. Yarn &c and a fresh breeze all soil

Lat 33°50' S Long 49°55' W

Barometer 29°47

Sunday January 1st 1865 Begins with a fresh breeze from the NE heaving NNE all soil at 2 P.M. took in light soil and kept her W at night took in soil and kept too heaving E & S middle part wind heaving E and at 11 P.M. the N some thunder and lightning latter part a strong gale from the SSW heaving W. close reefed main top soil and reefed 1st soil at 11 set close reefed 2nd top soil & spinnaker Lat 34°01' Long 50°25' W

Barometer at 7 A.M. 29°35 at 7 P.M. 29°55

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

Journal of the Voyage

1800-1801

Bark Charles looks in on Whaling
Monday January 3rd 1869
Begins with a strong breeze from the S
by W heaving W by S wind close under sails. It sets sail meeting at 1.15 under main sail at 2.30 took out a reef & set fly gill & jiff top sail at night. Took in scull light breeches middle part wind hauled to S W heaving W S W better part strong gales now hauled to S W two sail in sight at 11.15 Spoke the former Aboude nothing here

Lat 34.24 S Long 51.10 W

Barometer 29.80

Tuesday 3rd Begins with a strong gale
from the S W heaving W N W under close reefs and reefed. Here sail at 11.15 Spoke the J. A. at night calm very near middle part a light breeze from the S better part all sail a light breeze head ing W S W under getting out water

Lat 34.01 S Long 52.00 W

Wednesday 4th Begins with a fine breeze from the S heaving W S W all sail at 1.15 hauled to E S at night took in sail middle part wind light better part light breeze from the S all sail
heaving S S E three sail in sight water empty fitting from New 2nd Hand Spoken

Lat 34.07 S

Longitude 51.05 W

Barometer 29.87

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

1800

Boat anchored in a wharf
Thursday January 5th 1865

Begins with a fresh breeze from S to ESE
heaving from ESE to NE all sail furled
the speaker and put it below two sail in sight at night took in sail heaving NNW
all the part moderate heaving from NNE to NNW at 9 all tacked to ESE all sail the james observed in sight and was ship.

Lat 34° 40' S Long 50° 40' W

Barometer 29.75

Friday 6th Begins with a fresh breeze from the NE & NNE heaving from E to ESE all sail
at night took in sail middle part heaving
E by S and E by N a strong breeze better part strong breezes and rapid heaving E by N at 12 all hoisted SW

Lat 34° 40' S Long 49° 55' W

Barometer 29.80

Saturday 7th Begins with strong breeze
from the NE & heaving E by N breeze fresh at 3 calm breeze blowing over and over squalls
at 4 took in sail at last a thunder squall
from the NW took in all sail middle part cleared up at 4 all sail raised came out SW at 6 all kept her off NE two sail in sight better part light breeze and nearly calm

Latitude 34° 42' S

Longitude 49° 30' W

Barometer 29.47

Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

1865

Bank Swathbush on in Whaling

Sunday January 8th 1865

Begins with light breeze from the S.W. Steady
N.E. all clearing soil at 2 cables at 4 cables
from the E by N heaving N by E soil in sight
at middle part a strong breeze from the E heaving N.N.E. latter part strong breeze specially close up & surface covers over soil

Lat 34.22 S Long 49.30 W

Barometer 29.60

Monday 9th Begins with a strong breeze
from the E by S heaving N.E. by N shocks across their top soil saw two Whatsever to N.N.W.
were for them at 5 P.M. spoke Bank of Deer son Cottle 6 months 150 S forest Shadous Westport 7 months 120 Shew middle part monetary heaving S.E. latter part wind E N.E. Steady W.S.W. all soil the two marks in sight

Latitude 34.37 S

Longitude 50.20 W

Tuesday 10th

Barometer 29.57

Begins with a fine breeze from the S.N.E.
Steady S.W. by W all soil at night took in soil heaving S.E. middle part wind heaved to N.E. latter part wind N.N.W. heaving S.W. all soil saw the forest

Latitude 35.13 S

Longitude 58.07 W

Barometer 29.53

Bark Sturges looks on a Shalving
Wednesday ~~December~~ 11th 1865

Begins with a fine breeze from the NN
W to NW heeling from W to NW all soil
at 4 P.M. wind NW at night took in soil
heeling NE middle part wind NW at 5 P.M.
wind came out I in a squall latter part a fresh breeze abt cell soil Heavy W by S and soil

Lat 35°23' Long 52°10' W

Barometer 29.70

Thursday 12th January

Begins with a fine breeze from the S Heavy W N W all soil at 4 P.M. kept on N E by E at night took in soil heeling E NE middle part calm latter part a light breeze from the N to NW heeling from E NE to NNE two soil in sight at 10 P.M. Both Cornelie Luce New Bedford 6 abt 130 Spaw

Lat 35°05' Long 51°50' W

Barometer 29.75

Friday 13th Begins with a light breeze
from the NW to WNW heeling from NNE to N all soil at 4 P.M. at night took in soil middle part wind lulled to N heeling
E NE at 8 P.M. was ship to WNW latter part a fresh breeze 4 soil in sight and cloudy weather

No Observation this day

Barometer 29.50

Voyages to the Atlantic Ocean 1861

Book Description of a Whaling Sailing January 14th 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the N
heaving WNW single reefs & sheeted to ESE
dowl slowly meet at 3 P.M. blowing on close reef at the top with blowing strong at night
took in soil middle first made at and wind heaving heaving around to SE by the W latter part all soil a light breeze from the SW steering NW
by N two soil in sight and wind S.

Lat 35°31' S Long 51°55' W

Barometer 29.47

January 15th Begins a light breeze from the S steering N all evening soil one soil in sight at night took in soil light breeze from SE middle wind came out W steering N by E at 7 P.M.
wind heaved to SW and a strong gale latter part steering NNE close reef and soil

Lat 35°00' S Long 51°35' W

Barometer 29.60

January 16th Begins with a strong gale
from S by W steering NNE shook the reefs
the other top soil then weather two soil in sight at night took in soil and left to heaving ESE middle part strong gales latter part much the same steering NE by E single reef other & close reef & top soil

Latitude 34°42' S

Longitude 50°50' W

Barometer 29.65

26 pages to the Atlantic Ocean 1865

26 pages
to
the

Atlantic Ocean

Atlantic Ocean

Bank Swesloub's on a Whaling

Tuesday January 17th 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the
S W steering N E by E at all soil at night took in soil heeling S E and middle part calan latter part a light breeze from the N N W heeling N E and bent the main top soil to repair
two navigations in sight

Lat 34.13 S Long 49.55 W

Wednesday 18th

Barometer 29.55

Begins with a light breeze from the N N W heeling N E employed repairing main top soil at 2 1/2 P.M. finished and bent it at night took in soil middle a fresh breeze from the N N W latter part more moderate wind N W steering N E and wind W N W all soil

Lat 33.46 S Long 48.50 W

Barometer 29.50

Thursday 19th Begins with a fine breeze
from the W N W steering N E all soil at 2 P.M.
wind W at 3 1/2 wind heeled moderate
S in a squall and blowing strong and fast down one soil in sight at 5 P.M. 2 soil in sight at night took in soil heeling E N E middle part wind heeled to E latter part all soil heeling from the N N E to N a heavy swell from the S

Latitude 33.06 S

Longitude 48.25 W

Barometer 29.68

Voyage to the Arctic Ocean 1868

1868

1868

Barth Stuehlohn on a Whaling
Friday January 20th 1865

Begins with a fresh breeze from the E to E
NE heaving from NNE to N all soil at night took in soil strong breeze middle part heaving from N to NW by N at 7th A.M. heeled to E by S better part all soil

Lat 33° 30' S Long 48° 25' W

Barometer 29.55

Saturday 21st Begins with a fresh breeze
from the NNE heaving E all soil at 4 P.M. breezing on took in light breeze at night took in soil middle part strong breeze better part strong gales and rough dark cloudy weather employed heaving out water Breeze so and wind N N W ? No observations this day

Barometer 29.35

Sunday 22nd Begins with a strong breeze
from the N N W and N heaving N E and S N E
and a low reef & then soil and further dark cloudy weather and rough at night took in soil middle part heeled to S W and S better part strong gales and a heavy sea
on heaving W S W low reef & then top soil and storm soil

Latitude 32° 44' S

Longitude 47° 00' W

Barometer 29.55 At 5 P.M.

Wages to the Atlantic Ocean 1861

Back observations of New Bedford on Monday January 30th 1865

Begins with a very gale of wind from the S heading NW at 11 AM the wrecked ship's masts soil in sight middle part moderating better but all soil steering W 1/2 S wind SE

Lat. 32°33' S Long 48°25' W

Tuesday 24th

Barometer 29.65

Begins with a fine breeze from the SE
steering NW 1/2 S all soil in but the fore top soil and part center also right took in soil
heading NNE middle part fine better put a fine breeze and clear weather
all soil steering NW employed reefing all top soil cutting over lower steering soil etc

Lat. 32°17' S Long 49°20' W

Barometer 29.52

Wednesday 25th Begins with a fine breeze
from the NE by E steering SW & SW by W all soil employed in soil's at 3 PM finished at night took in soil. heading SE middle part wind heeled to NNE better part steering SW came up. there were squalls clear wrecked at 11 took in 1/2 top soil & 1/2 soil
not a very bad looking squall but a play of rain

No observation this day
Barometer 29.20

as Whaling Voyages to the Atlantic Ocean

Beaufort & Newcastle of New Bedford

Thursday January 26th 1865

Begins with strong gale from the NNE
and a plenty of thunder squalls. Heavy S.W.
clear perfect calm top soil at 3 1/2 fms wind came out & in as squalls took in again top soil at 4 fms and light air and sometimes a gale from all points of the compass middle part cleared up and came out S.W. letters put strong breeze clear up & clearing W

Lat 33° 00' S Long 49° 40' W

Friday 27th

Barometer 29.45

Begins with a strong breeze from the S.W.
clearing W set rain soil at 3 fms and top and took out the reefs at night took in soil middle part clear away calm better put a light breeze from the N steering
S.E. every thing set one soil in sight

Lat 33° 20' S Long 49° 55' W

Barometer 29.55

Saturday 28th Begins with a light breeze
from the N and fine steering S.E. every thing set but the fore top mast stay out at night took in soil heaving & middle part much the same better put all soil steering S.E. & S.
4 soil in sight

Latitude 34° 06' S

Longitude 49° 00' W

Barometer 29.47

On a Whaling Voyage to the Arctic Ocean

Bark Woodhous of New Bedford on Tuesday January 29th 1865

Begins with a fine breeze from the N steering W by S all soil at night took in soil heaving from N W to W by N bottom put wine heaving from N to S W all soil but heaving
from N W to S W

Lat 34° 18' S Long 50° 05' W

Monday 30th

Barometer 29.45

Begins with a breeze from N W and heaving to S E heaving from S W to S all soil Pell heave to S W all soil at night took in soil heaving N S W middle put strong breeze bottom put in fresh breeze from S E strong S W by W employment getting out water 2 L.C all soil

Latitude 34° 37' S

Longitude 51° 35' W

Barometer 29.75

Tuesday 31st Begins with strong breeze
from S E and some squally strong N S W all soil at 3/4 Pell heave a squall double reef took in main soil three soil in sight but a New fish at night took in soil heaving
S S W middle put more black water better put all soil light breeze back closer top strong
soil

Latitude 35° 19' S

Longitude 52° 25' W

Barometer 29.85

Whaling Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

Bark Ambergris of New Bedford
Wednesday February 1st 1865

Begins with a fresh breeze from the ESE
& all sail trees & ships to NE employed Lifting and mauling wheel tops. Blocks and ¹⁰ four trees at night took in sail middle part maul & NE moves ship to SE latter part maul light from ENE to ESE all sail
heaving from SE to S

Lat 35-35 S Long 52-25 W

Thursday 2nd

Barometer 29.75

Begins with a fine breeze from the E all sail heaving SE employed putting up the main Royal Masting at night took in sail heaving ESE two sail in sight middle and latter part four breezes latter part all sail steering E by S

Lat 36-25 S Long 51-45 W

Barometer 29.75

Friday 3rd Begins with a fine breeze
from the NNE steering SE all clearing sail
at night took in sail heaving NNE middle part five latter part all sail steering SE two sail in sight fine
weather

Latitude 37-18 S

Longitude 52-15 W

Barometer 29.75

On a Whaling Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

2nd ed.

1841

1842

1843

Bank of vessels of New Bedford on Saturday February 4th 1865

Begins with a fine breeze from the S.E.
Heeling S.E. spoke English Menhaden & Sargassum of Worcester from Swansea for Matanzas at 2 1/2 P.M. spoke English Ship Mitchell of Hingham
N.B. from Cavell for Cullas left her off
S.W. at night took in soil heeling N.N.W. and della put in light better light heeling and calm steering W.S.W. when we could see soil

Lat 37.50 S Long 53.40 W

Sunday Feb 5th Breveter 29.70

Begins with light airs from the N.E. and
E.N.E. Steamer W.S.W. at night took in heeling
S. wind E.S.E. Letter put a fine breeze from the E.N.E. steering S.W. 3 soil in sight

Lat 38.20 S Long 53.40 W

Monday 6th Begins with a light breeze
from the N.E. steering S.W. at 2 1/2 P.M. spoke Reverend American Schooner Abithon Budget of New Archangel Heeling 54 days from New York for New Archangel with telegraph
Apprentice at night took in soil heeling N.W. windless put light breeze better put light airs steering W.N.W. three soil in sight

Latitude 38.36 S

Longitude 53.50 W

Breveter 29.75

an interesting voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

1855

1855

Bark Swishhook of New Bedford on a Sunday July 7th 1865

Begins with a light breeze from the ENE
heaving SE at 1 PM spoke Whip Guilote of Baltimore at 10 AM from Montevideo for at night took in soil heaving SE middle part fine better part wine NE fine weather heaving SE all soil employed heaving
out water Main Hatch 4 Soil in sight

Lat 39° 17' S Long 53° 35' W

Wednesday 8th

Barometer 29.75

Begins with a fine breeze from the NE
heaving SE by S all soil employed storing up Main Hatch & between 2nd & 3rd Soil in sight at night took in soil spoke English Bark San Louis
from Sunderland 61 days for Calicut with coal middle part wine heaved to NW at 7 AM wine NW & all soil turned to NW better part light breeze heaving NNE by N

Lat 39° 46' S Long 53° 58' W

Thursday 9th

Barometer 29.70

Begins with a light breeze from the NW
heaving to NW all soil heaving from NNE to NNE at night took in soil middle part light breeze better part a fine breeze all soil heaving NE by N

Latitude 39° 43' S

Longitude 54° 00' W

Barometer 29.55

Whaling Voyages to the Atlantic Ocean

1840-1841

1840-1841

Back Chamber of Bone Well put in a Friday February 10th 1865

Begins with a fresh breeze from the N.W.
by N heading N.E. by N all soil fine & clean even then at night took in soil middle part being on some Thunder and lightning took in S.W.
soil better part wind headed to S.W. heading W.N.W. set reefed Five soil one soil in sight

No Observation this day

Bermuda at 7 AM Feb 29. 40-7 PM 29.45

Saturday 11th Begins with a strong gale
from the S.W. and heading to S. at 10 AM reefed
Five top soil and made a bar off S.W. and N.W.
W at night took in S top soil middle part muddy better part is light brown from the S heading N all clearing soil and mud 55 E

Lat. 38.40 S Long 52.40 W

Bermuda 29.60

Sunday 13th Begins with a fine breeze
from the S.E. heading N by W all clearing soil
at night took in soil middle part a light
brown from E to S heading N by W better part much the same all clearing soil set one soil in sight

Latitude 38.15 S

Longitude 52.45 W

Bermuda 29.75

Wheeling Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

1841
1842 1843 1844 1845
1846
1847
1848
1849 1850
1851
1852 1853
1854
1855 1856 1857
1858
1859
1860
1861 1862
1863
1864 1865
1866
1867
1868
1869
1870
1871
1872
1873
1874
1875
1876
1877
1878
1879 1880
1881 1882 1883
1884 1885
1886
1887 1888
1889
1890 1891
1892
1893 1894
1895
1896 1897 1898
1899
1900

Bartholomew's of New Bedford in Monday February 13th 1865

Began with a light breeze from the S. S. E.
fine weather. Steaming N by W all day set one sail in sight at 4 1/2 P.M. at 4 3/4 P.M. spoke Ship James Cornell 80 Bays from San Francisco
at night took in sail Middle part Steering N by W short short sail latter part in fresh breeze
at 11 sail Steaming N by W

Lat 37.10 S Long 53.00 W

Barometer 29.80

Tuesday 14th Began with a fresh breeze
from the S. S. E. Steaming N by W all day set the James in sight at 6 1/2 P.M. spoke the James took in sail mid the part wind hauled to E heading N N E latter part wind hauled to N N E all sail

Lat 36.45 S Long 53.05 W

Wednesday 15th Began with a breeze from the N N E all sail heading N W then hauled to E the James in sight at night then hauled to W N W and took in all sail middle part breezing on and wind hauled to N W by N wave half to N E at N latter part strong gale then reefs at 10 came on to rain hard in squalls &
the wind heading to W S W took in fore top sail heading N W by N

No observations this day
Barometer 29.55

as Mr. Henry Rogers to the attention of the Back above bank of New Bedford

Thursday February 16th 1865
Began with a strong gale from the NE
Wind had been blowing from the NW chain top with surface the sail on the Spencer heading NW at 4 held up sailing still slow being heavy weather at night took in sail wind hauled to ESE middle part clear & up a strong gale heading by W latter part more moderate high up to steering NE by N

Lat 36.40 Long 52.45 W

Friday 17th Barometer 29.75

Began with a fresh breeze from ESE to SE steering NE by N much at night bubbles wiped. Receding ENE middle part wind hauled to NNE heading from ENE to NW latter part all sail heading for NW
to WNW one sail wheel in sight
employed looking quarter land

Lat 36.15 Long 52.55 W

Saturday 18th Barometer 29.70
Began with a light breeze from the N
all sail employed looking open for land
saw the ship the vessel was a whaler
as we supposed at 2 o'clock to NE & E at night the hel to NW took in some sail middle part on both tacks wind hauled to NW in strong breeze latter part wind NW
W strong breeze heading N by E whole top sail &c

Lat 36.30 Long 52.50 W
Barometer 29.53

See also Whaling papers to the Atlantic Ocean

See also papers to the Atlantic Ocean

See also papers to the Atlantic Ocean

Barb's observations off New Bedford
Sunday February 17th 1865
Began with a fine breeze from the SSE during the day. At 5 P.M. a moderate swell all night gentle breeze. wind heeled
to SSW middle part of fine breeze later part wind heeled to SSE swell all night

No bls this day

Monday 20th

Barometer 29.60

Began with a fresh breeze from the SSE during the day. At 5 P.M. all swell in sight at 5 P.M. swell in sight at night took in swell and left too heeling NE by E middle part strong gale latter part much the same but NE above waves go 5 fathoms in sight.

Lat 34.34 S Long 51.35 W

Barometer 29.72

Tuesday 21st Began with a strong breeze
from the E & SE heeling NE above waves sweep out near swell all night took in swell middle part strong breeze & strong
"latter part strong breeze & heavy rain
swept in swell & heeling NNE some squally above waves lower part of swell

Latitude 33.47 S

Longitude 51.25 W

Barometer 29.75

Bank of New York at New York on Wednesday February 22nd 1865

Began with a strong breeze from the E and some squally weather NNE. In the afternoon soil fell & freshen at night wore ship to SSE
and took in soil middle part strong breeze latter part much the same heading SE by S. Some ble winds & a heavy swell from SSE

Lat 34° 12' S Long 51° 20' W

Thursday 23rd

Barometer 29.80

Began with a strong breeze from the ENE &
a heavy swell from the SSE. In the afternoon soil fell & freshen heading SE at night took
in soil middle part moderate latter part
fine weather light breeze all soil

Latitude 34° 45' S

Longitude 51° 25' W

Friday 24th

Barometer 29.77

Began with a light breeze and light rain
from ENE heading SE all soil at night
took in some soil middle part light rain & blowing from ENE to NNE latter part all soil breeze much the same

No observation this day

Barometer 29.80

10 Whaling Voyages to the Atlantic Ocean

Beach Shovelers of New Bedford are Saturday Feby 25th 1865

Begins with light breeze from NNE to N head derry from E to ENE all soil at night double winded middle heading E by S latter part 3 soil in sight two of them wherever all soil heading E by S.

Lat 35° 18' Long 50° 25' W

Sunday 26th

Barometer 29.78

Begins begins with a light breeze from NN
E to NE heading from E to ESE all soil two wherever in sight at night double wind middle part on both tacks wind light & hefting latter part a fair little breeze from the NN E heading E and E by S all soil three wherever in sight saw the John Dawson take a wheel

Latitude 35° 40' S

Longitude 49° 33' W

Monday 27th

Barometer 29.70

Begins with a light breeze from the NN
E heading E all soil at 1 PM spoke mark at R Tucker which is 500 lbs. Spun & white at 2 PM tacked to NW at night took in soil spoke the John Dawson middle part head ing NW by W latter part all soil a fair breeze on both tacks two soil in sight

Latitude 35° 56' S

Longitude 49° 25' W

Barometer 29.57

as Whaling Vessels to the Atlantic Ocean

Wm. H. Brown
1854

Barb. Chas. Smith of New Bedford
Sunday February 28th 1865

Begins with a fresh breeze from the NNE heading to all sail at 3 P.M. shifted to NW the soil in sight at 5 P.M. spoke the Jacks at night double reefed middle part heading NE by E a strong breeze latter part heading NE
strong gales and rough close reefs on sail

Lat 36° 06' S Long 48° 15' W

Monday January 1st Barometer 29° 53.

Begins with strong gales from the NNE to N W heading from NE to NW close reefs and reefed fore sail at night took in fore top sail middle part wind shifted to SSE latter part a strong breeze steering NW all day
ing sail one sail in sight

Lat 35° 30' S Long 48° 10' W

Tuesday 2nd Barometer 29° 85

Begins with a fine fresh breeze from the SSE steering NW by W all day clearing sail at night took in sail heading S W by S middle part wind shifted to SE and ESE latter part all sail steering N by W a fresh breeze

Latitude 35° 02' S

Longitude 49° 00' W

Barometer 29° 95

on the line of the Atlantic

Bark Struck from off New Bedford on Friday March 3rd 1865

Begins with a fresh breeze from the S.E.
and fine weather. Steaming N by W clearing soil at night took in soil heading N.E. by N. wind
the part wind heeled to E.N.E. latter part fresh breeze heading N.E. N by W whole top soil & any layer remaining above top yellow soil over soil
in sight Latitude 33.53 S

Longitude 49.15 W

Saturday 4th Barometer 29.85

Begins with strong breeze from the E.N.E. heading N and N by W Top soil for one section sight
when finished went back to the top yellow soil at night took in soil more till to S.E. and put a fresh breeze latter part wind N.N.E. heading N.W. by W whole above top soil double reefed. Fine
Main soil & one soil in sight

Lat 33.33 S Long 49.30 W

Sunday 5th

Barometer 29.73

Begins with a strong breeze from the N.N.E.
heading N.W. at 4 P.M. more till to E by N. wind put strong breeze from N.N.E. heading E. latter part much the same Steaming S.W. by W single reef and above top yellow soil over soil
in sight

Latitude 33.34 S

Longitude 49.27 W

Barometer 29.62

on Whaling Voyages to the Atlantic Ocean.

Beach elsewhere the of New England on Monday March 6th 1865

Begins with a fresh breeze from the N.W.
steering W by S with all sail set at 4 bells and hauled to W spoke the st R. Becker got some bush middles some veer spoke the latter put vine S heading W by S all sail

Latitude 33.52 S Long 50.10 W

Tuesday 7th

Moonset 29.65

Begins with a fresh breeze from the S all sail heading W by S with all sail set at 4 bells spoke Ship James 45 Bl. having passed the 130 Bl.
S O set night took in sail middle part main hauled to S O and S heading from E N E to N at 7 A M tacked to S S E better part all sail 6 till in sight fine weather

Latitude 33.59 S

Longitude 50.33 W

Wednesday 8th

Moonset 27.78

Begins with a fine breeze from the E heading S S E all sail 2 till in sight at night took in sail middle part heading S S E better part heading from N to N W
one sail in sight fine weather all sail

Latitude 34.30 S

Longitude 50.45 W

Moonset 29.83.

see shipping papers to the Atlantic Ocean

Atlantic Ocean

Atlantic Ocean

Barb Swerlow of New Bedford on Thursday March 9th 1865

Begins with a light breeze from the NE
to E heaving from N NW to NNE all soil
at night took in soil heaving NNE middle part heaving NNE latter part all soil heaving from NNE to N

Lat 34° 06' S Long 51° 05' W

Friday 10th

Barometre 29° 82.

Begins with a fine breeze from the ENE
heaving N all soil under the old Spunk
and then the New one at night a strong breeze heaved to SE and took in soil middle part strong breezes latter part a strong breeze heaving SE by whole main. Double reefed fine main soil gale & Spunk once soil in sight

Latitude 34° 36' S

Longitude 50° 50'

Saturday 11th

Barometre 29° 85

Begins with a strong breeze from the NE
heaving E SE soil as above at night took in soil middle part strong gale latter part more moderate. top soil main soil gale Spunk heaving E by S

Latitude 35° 18' S

Longitude 50° 15' W

Barometre 29° 80

or Back Wheeling Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

Beach Ankershaws of New Bedford on a
Sunday 12th 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the NNE
heaving & whole top soil above soil 4 ft & 8 ft
at night took in soil middle part strong gal latter part close reef squally veering & c
Latitude 35° 35' S

Longitude 49° 40' W

Monday 13th

Barometer 29° 45'

Begins with a strong breeze from the NNE and squally under close reef & 8 ft soil & heaving & at 5 P.M. wind NW in a squall at night took in 8 ft top soil latter part squally wind all around the Ave. Lat and clearing up with a breeze from the N heaving & NE

Latitude 35° 20' S

Longitude 49° 15' W

Tuesday 14th

Barometer 29° 50'

Begins with a breeze from the N heaving
& NE set above soil 4 ft and 8 ft at 4 P.M.
wind W at night took in soil middle part wind heaved to the SSW at 6 A.M. made all soil kept her off N and N by E at 10 wind
heaved to SE and blowing on at 11 Double reefed steering N by E a heavy swell from the SSW

Latitude 34° 30' S

Longitude 49° 10' W

Barometer 29° 85'

Whaling Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

Whaling Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

Whaling Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

Bark Swallow of New Bedford on Wednesday March 15th 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the E by S and a heavy swell from the SSW steering N by E Double reefs down cloudy weather at 3 P.M. one soil in sight left too the wind heading NNE at night took in soil middle part strong gales heading from NNE
to N latter part blowing and raining saw two Merchantmen piers standing to SE at 11 Perce the John Lawson wore ship to SE and wind NE

No Observation this day

Barometer 7 A.M. 29.80 & 3 P.M. 29.57 & 7 P.M. 29.53

Thursday 16th Begins with a gale of wind and rain from the NE and heavy sea on at 2 P.M. took in Main top soil Laying under Main Spencer Fore & Main stay soils at 5 began to clear up some and moderate middle part wind headed to WNW heading N latter part strong gales drove reefs the Lawson head by and blowing on took in two top soil

Lat 33.48 S Long 48.10 W

Friday 17th

Barometer 29.47 & 4 P.M.

Begins with a head gale from WNW heading N
Main top soil Spencer Fore stay soil at 1 1/2 took in Main top soil blowing very heavy in squalls at 6 P.M.
wind headed to WSW at 8 began to moderate
middle part wind headed to SSW latter part strong breeze and reefs head ing W Double reefs at 10 Wore ship to SE saw the John Lawson set gibe and Main soil Spencer

Latitude 33.10 S Long 48.10

Barometer 29.96

as Whaling Voyages to the Atlantic Ocean

Bank Overhaul of New Bedford on a Saturday December 18th 1865

Began with fresh breeze from SSW to S hauling from S to E & S & began at night took in soil middle part wind light hauling W
by S latter part all soil hauling W by S Employed breeching out out Water Main Watch two soil in sight

Lat 33° 10' S Long 48° 00' W

Sunday 19th Barometer 30.00

Began with a light breeze from the S hauling W & W and hauling to S & Steady SW
by W all soil employed Steaming off chain that at night took in soil middle part wind light and calm Steady SW by W 8 miles latter part a fine breeze from the ENE Steady W & W the J Sawson
in sight

Latitude 33° 28' S

Longitude 48° 40' W

Monday 20th Barometer 30.00

Began with a fine breeze from the ENE steaming W by S all drawing soil two soil in sight
at night took in soil hauling N middle part blowing on wind hauled to NE and began to rain hauled at 5 A.M. wore ship to S & E veering and blowing at 6 A.M. took in chain top soil latter part wind hauled to E & S and blowing and clearing up some hauling I could chain spe-en and have stay soil

Latitude 33° 22' S

Longitude 49° 40' W

Barometer 29.60

Whaling Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

By John B. Thompson

Bark Swallow of New Bedford on a Tuesday March 21st 1865

Begins with a gale of wind from the E & S heeling & heaving under Main Spencer and Fore & by soil middle part moderate
wind hauled to S & heeling S to SW at 7
A.M. took to E all soil one soil in sight
Lat 33.30 S Long 50.00 W

Wednesday 22nd Barometer 29.90

Begins with a strong breeze from the S & E
heeling & all soil at 2 P.M. Spoke Ship James Arnold 700 all told at night took in soil Spoke the John Dawson middle part strong breeze at 6 A.M. wave ship to SW meets soil latter part strong breeze some squally one soil

Latitude 33.24 S

Longitude 50.00 W

Thursday 23rd

Barometer 29.95

Begins with a strong breeze from the SE
heeling SSW heft off N by W at 3 P.M. heft to heeling NE by E at all soil at night took
in soil middle part moderate latter part
all soil heeling NE fine weather one soil
in sight on play vanishing inside L. Bout

Latitude 33.54 S

Longitude 49.50 W

Barometer 29.90

Whaling Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean 1865

Wm. H. Burdett
1865

Wm. H. Burdett

1865

Bank Street houses of New Bedford on a

Friday March 24th 1865

Begins with a fine breeze from ESE heading N & all soil touched to S & bent the fore top soil and bent another two soil in sight at night two in soil middle part wind hauled to ENE
at 7 AM touched to SE all soil two soil in sight Spoke English Ship Gentlemen = Piers Lunden from Lunden land for ballast with coils and coils

Lat 32° 59' S Long 50° 15' W

Saturday 25th

Barometer 29.75

Begins with a fine light breeze from the E
NE heading SE all soil at night took in soil middle part wind hauled to NNE heading E at 6 AM was ship to NW by W latter part saw white weather steered for it SW by W a strong breeze and wind NNE comes equally in the W all soil

Lat 33° 26' S Long 50° 30'

Sunday 26th

Barometer 29.77

Begins with a fresh breeze from the NNE and heading to W steering S by W at 2 PM wind S W at 3 S S W at 4 S S E calm and cloudy heading E
two soil in sight at 5 PM Spoke Bank & R Tucker 95 S luteby middle part wind and blowing from the S soil in latter part strong breeze and squally whole top soils all in soil
gib and Spunher heading ESE at 12 had a squall took in all in soil gib & Spunher and close up fore top soil steering NE one soil in sight

Lat 33° 33' S Long 50° 00' W

Barometer 29.70

Whaling Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean.

[Faint, illegible text]

[Faint, illegible text]

Bank Swallowholes of New Bedford on a Monday March 27th 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the SSW
steering NE some squally at 3 P.M. began to blow
and heavy squalls took in the soil over five top soil and also reefed the chains and left two heaving SE at 4 1/2 P.M. blowing hard took in all top soil and wore ship to W middle part moderating and clearing up at 6 P.M. wore ship to SE made soil strong breeze and reefed with some pummeling
squalls whole top soil chain soil & two soil in sight

Lat 33° 20' S Long 49° 25' W

Tuesday 28th

Barometer 29° 85

Begins with a strong breeze from the SSW
steering NNE all drawing soil some squally.
at night took in soil heaving SE middle did away calm latter part wind all around the lot made all soil squally some at 12 took in light soils and chain soil & squall from the NNE heaving NW

No Observation this day

Wednesday 29th

Barometer 29° 90

Begins with a breeze from NNE and veering heaving NW at 2 1/2 P.M. wind heaved to SE some squall and blew quite hard took in gibs & spars & clo able reefed at night took in soil chains off middle part heaving NE some squally latter part strong breezes double reefs & strong NNE and soil in sight - clear weather

Latitude 32° 12' S

Longitude 49° 00' W

Barometer 30° 00

Whaling Voyages to the Atlantic Ocean 1865

Bark Arrowheads of New Bedford on a
Thursday March 30th 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the E & E heaving N & and N & by N by the winds at all sail clear weather two sail in sight at night took in sail middle part heaving from N & to N better part strong breeze double reef & heaving from N to NNW sails breaking out breeze from under the muck between decks at 12 tied to & E & E

Lat 31° 27' S Long 48° 50' W

Friday 31st

Barometer 29.95

Begins with a strong breeze from the N &
heaving E & E some strong squalls double reef
at all sail gale & spunk two sail in sight at night took in sail middle part strong breeze
and voyed better part strong gale heaving
& and E by S double reef and voyed under sail

Lat 32° 12' S Long 48° 20' W

Saturday April 1st

Barometer 29.95

Begins with a strong gale from NN and voyed specially weather heaving E & E by S at 4 P M one sail in sight at night took in sail middle part strong gale and squally some thunder & lightning and voyed better part clear some more sail with a strong breeze heaving E

Latitude 32° 52' S

Longitude 47° 50' W

Barometer 29.95

Whaling Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean.

Bark Swishoubas off New Bedford on Sunday April 2nd 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the NE to N
heaving from E to E to E NE close veers main sail
gib & Spanker maged at night took in soil middle part much the same at 6 AM more ship to NW Latter part all soil heaving WNW

Latitude 32° 56' S

Longitude 47° 45' W

Monday 3rd

Barometer 29.85

Begins with a light breeze from the N heaving
W N W all soil at 3 PM wind NW shifted to N N E at night took in soil at column middle part a fresh breeze from the N N W heaving NE Latter part much the same one soil in sight
broke out few water main watch between decks

Lat 32° 51' S Long 47° 35' W

Tuesday 4th April Barometer 29"

Begins with a strong breeze from the N N W heaving NE nearly all soil one soil in sight
at night took in soil middle part on both tacks
at 6 AM more ship to W by N Latter part strong breeze at 11 Double reefed took in main soil gib & Spanker at 12 more ship to N N E blowing on

No observation this day

Barometer 29.65

as Whaling Voyages to the Atlantic Ocean

1852

Bank Anushonke of New Bedford on Wednesday April 5th 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the N W and squally & blowing on heading NNE at 1 M bells close reefed the Fore Top sail at 2 wind hauled to SW close reefed Main Top sail and kept her off. N N W close squally with the one sail in sight at night took in sail and kept too heading W middle part wind hauled to SW at 6 M made sail kept off N N W cleared up better part all sail
3 sail in sight squally near W S W

Lat 31.56 Long 47.35 W

Thursday 6th

Barometer 29.80

Begins with a fresh breeze from the W S W steering N N W all sail one sail in sight at night took in sail heading N W middle part wind hauled to S E at 6 M made all sail kept her off N E better part calm a heavy swell from S S W

Lat 31.18 S Long 47.50 W

Friday 7th

Barometer 29.95

Begins with a calm and fine clear weather at night took in sail a light air from S E middle part wind hauled to N E heading N N W better part all sail and fine weather

Latitude 31.05 S

Longitude 48.10 W

Barometer 29.95

North. Atwasbunks of New Bedford on
Saturday 8th 1865.

Begins with a fine breeze from the NE heading NNW all sail at night took in some sail middle part wind heeled to NNE took to E at 6 AM all sail at 9 wind ENE took to E sail in sight and wind NE by E

Latitude 30° 53' S Long 48° 20' W

Sunday 9th

Barometer 29.95

Begins with a fine breeze from the NE by E heaving N by W all sail our sail in sight at night took in some sail middle part a fresh breeze
heaving NNW latter part a strong breeze whole top sail & heaving from NNW to NW at 11 AM double reefed fore top sail at 12 took to E our sail
in sight

Latitude 30° 08' S

Longitude 49° 20' W

Barometer 29.90

Monday 10th Begins with a strong breeze
from the NNE heaving E our sail in sight at 3 AM saw a Steamer Bearing NE by E at took in the main sail and double reefed the main top sail Middle part a strong breeze heaving from E to ESE latter part set main sail a strong breeze heaving E by N our sail in sight

Latitude 30° 40' S

Longitude 48° 10' W

Barometer 29.85.

as Whaling Voyages to the Atlantic Ocean.

Bank Above house of New Bedford on Tuesday April 11th 1865

Began with a strong breeze from the N
Heaving & NE winds & by 8 took in 7.16 and weaved
the main soil at 4.16 two soil in sight at 6.16 the brig from Liverpool middle part strong breeze at 7.16 more ship to WNW latter part strong breeze double reef main soil 7.16 Spun
Lat 30.57 S Long 47.50 W

Wednesday 12th Barometer 29.75

Began with a strong breeze from the N
Heaving WNW double reefs & 8.16 night more ship to ENE middle part strong breeze took in 7.16
and Spun at 11.16 more ship to WNW latter part strong breeze wind hauled to NNE at 12
more ship to NE

Lat 31.00 S Long 47.50 W

Thursday 13th

Barometer 29.57

Began with a strong breeze from the NNE
dark looking weather Heaving NE double reefs ~~scattered~~ weaved two top soil & 7.16 weaved main soil at 7.16 wind NW middle part wind hauled to SW Steady N by W short soil latter part a strong breeze all soil one soil in sight

Latitude 29.54 S

Longitude 47.45 W

Barometer 29.75

as Whaling Voyages to the Atlantic Ocean

1850
1851
1852 1853
1854
1855
1856 1857
1858
1859
1860
1861 1862
1863
1864 1865
1866
1867
1868
1869
1870
1871
1872
1873
1874
1875
1876
1877
1878
1879 1880
1881 1882 1883
1884 1885
1886
1887 1888
1889
1890 1891
1892
1893 1894
1895
1896 1897 1898
1899
1900

Beck & Co. on the 15th of May 1865
Friday April 14th 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the S.W. and changes steering N.N.W. every drawing soil set crushing on then blowing on stick in light soils at 2 1/2 P.M. set them again at night kept her off N by W. Middle part all soil wind from S to W.N.W. Latter part wind N.W. heading N.N.E. at 9 P.M. made the Land N.W. 30 miles.

Lat 28° 30' S Long 48° 00' W

Saturday 15th

Barometer 29.78

Begins with a fine breeze from N.W. heading N.N.E. all soil set 2 P.M. wind S.W. then wind N.N.W. light breeze. middle part light baffling air principally from S.W. Latter part nearly calm took in S.W. and put out another.

Lat 27° 40' S Long 48° 10' W

Barometer 29.80

Sunday 16th

Begins with a light air from S. steering N.W. for the Passage at 2 P.M. air from S.E. at 4 P.M. set the Chais and put the Anchors off the Bow at 7 left two middle part since hauled to N.E. at 2 P.M.
kept her off N.W. for the Passage all soil set along light in the mouth of the Passage a light breeze
from the N. sea in for the Harbour of Santos Bay
at 12 came to Anchor in company with 6 other Whalers. the first becoming N.E. in 4 fathoms water and hauled the soil so early this day.

as Whaling Voyages to the Atlantic Ocean

1840

1840

1840

1840

1840

1840

1840

1840

1840

1840

Beach & Dredges of New Bedford on a Tuesday May 23rd 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the NNE
and clear looking weather laying at anchor at Santa Cruz. middle part much the same latter part wind hauled to NW at 11 AM took over Anchor and stood out of the Bay at 12 Calm
Barometer 29.70

Wednesday 24th Begins with a calm at 1 PM
a light breeze from the S and clear cloudy weather Steady out of the harbor at 2 PM Calm at 4 PM came to anchor in 4 1/2 fathoms water Abreast N E by N Point Rappa E by N 5 miles
distiller put down seeing squally weather and calm at 7 AM a fresh breeze from NNE came and cloudy at 8 AM got under way and stood out of the Bay and with a fresh breeze from S steering E NE one sail going in Whaler stowed anchor and chains Barometer 29.65

Thursday 25th Begins with a breeze from the SSW
and clear cloudy weather Steering E NE at 11 AM employed repairing 13 boats at night took in sail saw a middle part a strong breeze and cloudy latter part strong gales from SSW and some squally with rain sail whole & hair trap sail double reefed fore and gill

Lat 26.23 S

Long 146.113 W

Barometer 29.85

Missing Voyages to the Atlantic Ocean 1865

Bar & Dredge hauls off New Bedford on a Friday & May 26th 1865

Begins with a strong gale from the S.W.
Heaving & NE which then double reef the top sail.
Main sail & gill stark & heavy weather at 3 1/2 P.M.
Dredge haul & by N at night took in sail double reef middle part strong breeze latter part all sail
and a fine breeze some cloudy

Latitude 25.48 S

Longitude 44.30 W

Barometer 29.90

Saturday 27th

Begins with a fine breeze from S.W. Heaving
& by N all sail at night took in light sail middle part light breeze and calm wind SE latter part all sail heaving NE light breeze employed writing
till one sail in sight

Latitude 25.32 S

Longitude 43.40 W

Sunday 28th

Barometer 29.93

Begins with a light breeze from the E heaving
N & E all sail at night took in light sail middle part wind backing and some veering head
on both tacks latter part double reef all sail sail gill and spar heaving N by E stark &
cloudy some squally

Latitude 24.56 S

Longitude 43.40 W

Barometer 29.85

Whaling Voyage to the Atlantic Ocean

Whaling

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

to the Atlantic Ocean

Barth & Sons Launch of New Bedford on Monday May 29th 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the E by N and some squally weather. By 5 o'clock we go at night took in main soil 1st & 2nd haul middle part since variable some hard snow on both tanks. Latter part squally from SSE to ENE heaving from E by N to N all soil but the light

Lat 24° 41' South

Long 44° 00' W

Tuesday 30th

Barometer 29.95

Begins with light variable winds and a plenty of light rain squalls from SSE to ENE heaving from NE to N at night took in main soil and tacked to SE middle part at calm and some rain latter part a light breeze
SSE to NE heaving from 1st to NNW all soil at 12
tacked SE by E

Lat 24° 28' S

Long 44° 05' W

Wednesday 31st

Barometer 29.95

Begins with light rain NE to E heaving from SSE to SSE all soil at night took in light soil and main soil middle part heaving SE a light breeze latter part fresh breeze and squally finished the B. Boat one soil in sight Steady SW

Latitude 25° 14' S

Longitude 44° 05' S

Barometer 29.95

as the above request to the attention of the supervisor of the land office

of the state of

the state of

and the state of
the
state of

Boat Swivelers of New Bedford from

Thursday April 1st 1865 June 1st

Begins with a fresh breeze from the NE by E heading SE and SE by E whole top soil covers & put out the B Boat some squally middle part heading from SE to E by S. Latter part is fresh breeze heading E by S all soil but top yellow & the soil in sight.

Latitude 25° 53' S.

Longitude 43° 20' W

Friday June 2nd

Barometer 29.95

Begins with a fresh breeze from NE by N heading E by S and E all soil but top yellow & soil employed at odd jobs. at night took in light soil middle part heading from E by S to ENE latter part a fine breeze from NW steering NE by E all drawing soil some light rain squalls 4 soil in sight wind headed to SW? Lat N 40° 00'

Saturday June 3rd

Barometer 29.95 or 30.00

Begins with a fresh breeze from SW and squally steering NE by E all drawing soil & soil in sight middle part all soil wind SE latter part wind E SE heading NE all soil water employed with hot getting out water &c. Two soil in sight.

Latitude 24° 42' S

Longitude 40° 50' W

Barometer 30.00

Mr. Cutler's Journal New Bedford 1865

1865
The weather was very warm and the water
was very warm.

1865
The weather was very
warm and the water
was very warm.
The weather was very
warm and the water
was very warm.

1865
The weather was very
warm and the water
was very warm.
The weather was very
warm and the water
was very warm.

Went Ashworths of New Bedford on Sunday June 4th 1865

Begins with light breeze from S E steering N E by E all sail employed at odd jobs.
middle part wind light and hauling from S E around to N N W by the E latter part a fine breeze steering N E by E all sail and sail in sight and wind N N W ? Latitude 24.30 S

Longitude 40.00 W

Monday 5th June

Barometer 29.95

Begins with a fine breeze from the N W steering N E by E all observing sail visible but light breeze from the N W latter part a fine breeze all sail and sail in sight with a wind at odd jobs and wind from N N W

Lat 24.00 S

Longitude 39.15 W

Tuesday 6th

Barometer 29.95

Begins with a fresh breeze from the N N W steering N E by E all sail employed at odd jobs. Middle part a fresh breeze from N N W steering N E latter part wind heeled to N N W all sail employed at odd jobs
a fresh breeze and fine weather a heavy sail from the S E

Latitude 22.56 S

Longitude 38.00 W

Barometer 30.00

have passages from St. Louis river to N. Westford.

Cook & Smasher in her Schooner

Wednesday June 7th 1865

Begins with a light breeze from the NW Steers
N & all soil over soil in sight weather employed at a cold 70s at 7 Bell wind here to S W middle part wind heeled to E and S & NE ends squally, Latter part wind S E Steering NE dark squally looking over the two soil in sight ends wind S W

Lat. 21.50 S by alt

Long. 37.00 W by alt

Barometer 30.00

Thursday 8th

Begins with light air from S W Steering NE
some squally two soil in sight about the chain
stop must stay soil at night took in light soil & under soil middle part a strong breeze some squally wind from S W to S E latter part squally two soil in sight wind from S E to S S W
all soil

Latitude 20.40 S by alt

Longitude 36.35 W by alt

Friday 9th

Begins with a fresh breeze from the S W all soil Steering NE some squally 2 soil in sight
at night took in light soil & under soil middle part a strong breeze & squally from S E Steering NE by N latter part strong breeze all soil chain weather one soil in sight

Latitude 18.43 S

Longitude 35.50 W

from the Catherine Howard. The Med.

Bank Overhauled at New Bedford

Saturday June 10th 1865

Began with a strong breeze from the S.E. and clear weather steering N.E. by N. all sail set. Two sails in sight. At night took in light sails middle part strong gales latter part much the same and squally while top sails main sail and gale weather on her water employed making her hold and muzzing ship after the other side she leaked several 22 inches water in the hold

Latitude 16° 22' S

Sunday 11th

Longitude 35° 00' W

Began with a strong breeze from the S.E. and squally weather steering N.E. by N. while top sails main sail & gale at night strong squalls double reefed middle part strong breeze some squally latter part strong breeze took out a reef out of main top & gale

Latitude 14° 10' S

Monday 12th

Longitude 34° 20' W

Began with a strong breeze from the S.E. steering N.E. by N. nearly all sail middle part much the same latter part strong breeze all sail some light squalls some ice sail to windward heaving to S.W. water employed at odd jobs

Latitude 11° 59' S

Longitude 33° 45' W

to the papers from the letters in the H. B. paper 1844

Barb Swashbuck on. Len. Phipps from Thursday June 13th 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the SE and some squalls light steam N.E. by N. all day soil bent the edwin top yellow & dry soil wet set it over soil in light middle wet a fresh breeze all soil better put strong breeze and squally weather. played it all day some two soil traveling to the southward

Latitude 7° 50' S

Long. 115° 15' W

Wednesday 14th Begins with a fresh breeze
from the SE Steady N.E. all soil wet
P.M. squally middle put strong breeze and squally took in light soil set 1 P.M. spl. for top soil all to 11:00 double reefed all in top & took in M. soil in better put bent another fine top soil strong gales and had squalls set down soil

Latitude 7° 41' S

Thursday 15th

Long. 115° 15' W

Begins with a strong gale from the SE &
level squalls under 11:00 up strong N.W.
overcoming on the night took in gale & all in soil wet. above reefed the fine top soil and all put a strong breeze and squally latter put heavy squalls and reefed and reefed wind backed to E.S. and bitter weather
but still squally

Latitude 5° 42' S

Long. 115° 15' W

Off. Arthur's Friends New York, 11

Bank & swashenks on low tide - from Friday June 16th 1865

Boys with a strong breeze from the S.W.
and wind equally weather steering NNE and upful then close reefed fore top sail at 10⁰⁰
set girth & chain soil one soil in sight at
at night took in main soil middle part strong breeze and equally latter part all soil wind &
fine weather heading NNE fine weather
Latitude 24.23 S

Saturday 17th

Longitude 33.30 W

Boys with a fine breeze from the E by S steering NNE & N by E all soil one soil in sight at night employed at nothing, at water watch
on electric middle part steering N by E and N
& by S all soil. latter part watch employed water hold getting out water & all soil
fine weather and wind SE

17.21

Latitude 24.16 S

Sunday 18th

Longitude 33.27 S

Boys with a fine breeze from the SE steering NNE all soil weather employed setting up main top gullion rigging heading N by E top stay soil & one soil in sight middle part strong breeze and equally took in light sails latter part strong breeze

2.10

Latitude 24.06 S

Longitude 33.30 W

Barth Ancher has on his ship from Monday June 19th 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the SSE
and some squalls Steering N by E all sail middle part much the same latter part a fine breeze comes Steering from N by E to NW staying fore top mast and turning up on the back stay and setting them all up

Latitude 2° 20 North
Tuesday 20th Longitude 34° 05 W

Begins with a fine fresh breeze from the SSE steering N by E clearing sail watch and beaching New Gulf top sail Steering clear back stays to middle part a fine breeze at 6 AM comes squall wind SE latter part
good weather and light breeze sent up Royal yards and sail and sent the top mast steering sail

Latitude 2° 20 North

Longitude 34° 42 W

Wednesday 21st Begins with a light breeze
from the SSE Steering N by W all sail employed setting up fore top gallant back stay & rigging middle part wind light and baffling
all round the compass with light squalls
latter part one heavy rain squall and a light breeze from SW to SSE cleared off

Latitude 5° 10 N

Longitude 34° 50 W

At the Court of Sessions held at New York

IN SENATE
JANUARY 18, 1854
REPORT
OF THE
COMMISSIONERS OF THE LAND OFFICE

Bank Swallowers of New Bedford on Thursday June 22nd

Begins with light breeze from the S E steering N by W all drawing sail and lying out lying down rigging &c at 4 P.M. some squally
and a short swell from the S. middle part a light breeze from S E and calm at 6 P.M.
No squally weather heavy latter part wind
light and variable plenty of squalls and calm

Latitude 5° 56 North

Friday 23rd

Longitude 84° 55 W

Begins with a calm at 1 P.M. a strong squall
from S and heavy weather steering N by E at 2 P.M.
P.M. calm middle a breeze from S and heavy view for about 2 hours the rest calm latter part calm and squally

Latitude 6° 26 S

Saturday 24

Longitude 84° 50 W

Begins with a calm and view squalls
at 3 P.M. saw Black Fish towed 4 boats took two took them in and cleared them a light breeze from N N E and view middle part a light breeze from the N N E heading NW latter part calm and view employed with hold getting out water and receiving black fish &c

Rev. Mr. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]

[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]

[illegible]
[illegible]

[illegible]
[illegible]

[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]

[illegible]

Black Swallows on San Diego
Tuesday June 25th 1865

Begins with a light breeze from the N and a plenty of rain heading E by N. The soil lighted up some finished the black water and put it in the pits squall hanging nearly around at 6 o'clock middle part calm latter part a light air from W and quite clear much soil
heading N N W and rain from W S W

Latitude 7.02 S

Monday 26th

Longitude 35.00 W.

Begins with a light air from W S W steering N N W all soil at 3 o'clock at 7 a squall of wind & rain from the S light soils in middle rain until 1 o'clock then cleared up some rain the west of the day and hot a very simple at 10 o'clock

Latitude 7.22 S

Tuesday 27th

Longitude 34.55 W.

Begins with a calm saw black fish lowered 4 boats took two at 4 P.M. took them in middle part some rain squalls and calm at 7 5 o'clock a breeze from the N E heading N N W rainy latter part much the same all soil and clearing off some.

No Observation this day.

From the collection of the Rev. Mr. [illegible]

1843
1844

Back Amers looks from St Catharines
Wednesday June 28th 1865

Begins with a fine breeze from the NE
and cloudy weather all sail. Steering by the wind N N W at 3 began to boil on the blacks fish at 8 finished, made but a fine dinner steering N W by N by N all sail tallies but much the same

Latitude 8.51 South
Longitude 36.30 West

Thursday 29th Begins with a fine breeze
from the NE steering N W by N all sail employed cutting and turning for rigging under the fore top gallant sail made but some squally wind heeled to E and SE and back to E latter part E came up squally again employed cutting fore and fore top gall rigging

Lat 10.30 N by E at

Friday 30th

Longitude 38.10 N by E at

Begins with a breeze from the E and squally very weather steering N W by N made but wind light and calm at 7 at 10
saw several Whales lowered 4 Boats struck
one got the B Boat stove all the same so that we did not pick her up too bully stove could do nothing with at 10 took the whale to the ship a light breeze from the E NE wheels going off at N W by N 3 Boats
in chase at 12 struck and killed another 6 miles off ship running for him got away
for cutting cable some squally

No Observations this day
A C Baker

Towneels New Bedford

1865

Bark Arishouks on her Passage
Saturday Feb 1st 1865

Begins with a fresh breeze from the ENE steering NW by N for the whale some squally
at 3 1/2 P.M. took the whale along side at 3 P.
began to cut at 7 finished took in light with middle part laying head yards aback watch choosing a way the head fell weather at 8 P.M.
began boiling under soft wind NE by N heading NW by N Latitude 10° 30 North
Longitude 38° 40 West

Sunday 2nd Begins with a fine breeze from the NE by N heading NW by N watch employed boiling at 4 1/2 P.M. got out west end waters
and washed off middle part heading NNE
and N by W latter part steering NNW wind heeled to E and squally finished boiling and clearing up Latitude 11° 12 North
Longitude 39° 25

Monday 3rd Begins with a light breeze
from the E steering NNW all soft at 3 P.M. saw sperm whales lowered and chased but a chance but did not last at night came on breeze took in light with heading S E by S middle part a fresh breeze some squally in both tacks at 6 P.M. saw sperm whales at 8 P.M. lowered and struck & killed two boats in chase who going quick gave them up at 12 took the whale along side a strong breeze over away

Latitude 11° 02 N
Longitude 39° 33 W

from St. Bartholomew's Hospital New Bedford 1865

Bank & Dredge on her. Dredge from Tuesday July 21st 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the E N E blowing with the whole got ready for setting out more ship at 1 looked on at 3/4
finis head cutting more ship double reefed stuns
N N W clearing up clouds and began boiling middle part a strong breeze heading N latter part strong breeze steering N N W double reefed finis head boiling wind E N E

Latitude 11° 40 North

Longitude 39° 58 West

Wednesday 5th Begins with a strong breeze from the E N E steering N N W double reefed watch employed watching heli getting out water & one soil in sight middle part a strong breeze heading N by N by the wind latter part set more soil & gave a strong breeze heading N watch employed watching top gallant rigging &c

Latitude 12° 48 North

Thursday 6th Longitude 40° 58 West.

Begins with a strong breeze from the E N E
and veered heading N by the wind double reefed
main soil & gave watch employed watching fore & fore top gallant rigging at night took in give & allow soil middle part heading N a strong breeze latter part steering N by West give & allow soil watch employed towing fore & fore top gallant rigging &c and by give strong

Latitude 14° 06 N

Longitude 41° 35 W

St. Anthony's Church New Bedford 1865

Back In washers on her Pajamas from Friday July 7th 1865.

Began with a strong breeze from the E and soon
suddenly steering N N W Double reefs main sail &
gib. Then a lighter stay sail was employed towing fore and aft stays set the main and setting down rigging at night took in gib and other sails middle part steering N by W latter part set gib and main sail steering N N W a strong breeze and waves all hands employed baring away and storing down bit
Main hatch between decks

Latitude 15° 34' N

Saturday 8th

Longitude 43° 37' West

Began with a fresh breeze from the E to E N E steering N N W Double reefs & employed storing down Main hatch at 2 P M finished and cleared up deck middle part a strong breeze latter part much the same water employed stowing Tanning & C

Latitude 17° 00' N

Sunday 9th

Longitude 43° 36' West

Began with a strong breeze from the E N E
steering N N W with that employed Reversing main rigging painting spars at 11 main & middle part a fresh breeze steering N by W took in main sail & gib latter part steering N W fine view then set fore top mast studding sail all sail except top guller's sail wind E S E

Latitude 18° 18' N

Longitude 44° 37' West

St. Catherine's towards New Bedford 1865

MS. A. 9. 2. 1. 10

Bark Arrives on her passage from Stamley July 10th 1865

Begins with a fine breeze from the E. & the -very N.W. soil except top gullies & soil's middle part much the same latter part but top soil
and not the water employed painting the top soil yard & one soil in sight miles E. & S.
Latitude 19.10 North

Tuesday 11th Longitude 46.20 West

Begins with a fine breeze from the E
& S. steering N.W. all during soil set at 2 PM
set down steering soil with employed painting
the & Main Top soil yards must heads & soil W on beach at night set royal middle part as breeze some squally latter part latter over the water employed painting musts aft & so

Latitude 20.34 N

Wednesday 12 Longitude 48.15 West

Begins with a fresh breeze from the E and fine over thus steering N.W. all during soil
Watch employed watching the rigging painting
Must heads & middle part as for the latter part much the same with out the latter for rigging turning head stays & so this morning. Set a long way ahead in their work.

Latitude 22.00 North

Longitude 50.40 West

A. Bucknins ³⁰¹ Burrows New Bedford 1865

Bank Swathings On her Passage from Thursday July 13th 1865

Begins with a fine fresh breeze from the & steering N W all soil on board the Main S.C. to fit fish's head and bent it at 3 o'clock middle part
a fresh breeze latter part much the same Employed Towing Tows before breakfast after that employed painting officer all day main yard and above top soil good wind & N E
Latitude 23.35 N

Longitude 52.45 W

Friday 14th Begins with a fine breeze from the & N E steering N W all soil watch employed Painting fish boom Tows Mast and Tows top soil spade at 2 P.M. took in Lower studding sail middle part wind heeled to E latter part a fine breeze under the Tows soil to repair
Latitude 25.00 N

Longitude 55.00 W

Saturday 15th 1865 Begins with a fresh breeze
from the & steering N W all soil watch emp loyed repairing Tows soil at 2 P.M. finished and bent it employed repairing fly fish middle part fine at 6 o'clock a little squally cleared up fine latter part fine employed with hold repairing fly fish & finished and bent fly fish

Latitude 26.15 N

Longitude 57.05 W

St. Catherine's School New York

Received of the Treasurer of the
St. Catherine's School New York
the sum of $100.00
for the year ending June 30, 1900

Witness my hand and seal this 1st day of July 1900
at New York City
The Treasurer
St. Catherine's School New York

Received of the Treasurer of the
St. Catherine's School New York
the sum of $100.00
for the year ending June 30, 1900

Barb. Overhauled on her Passage, soon
Sunday July 16th 1865

Begins with a fine breeze from the E and fine weather steering N^W all sail. L. Mutch employed painting fore yard fore mast and mizzen sprit towing fore stay & middle part come up squally with thunder and lightning wind
from N^E to S^W latter part some rain squalls
from E to S^E all sail ends wind S^E

Latitude 27.15 N

Longitude 58.35 W

Monday 17th Begins with a breeze from the E & E and some light squalls steering N^W all sail middle part fine breeze all sail. Latter part much the same with employed making span yards shaping bay tackle blocks rigging
up sheathing a long plank shear & wind S^E

Latitude 28.15 N

Longitude 60.25 W

Tuesday 18th Begins with a fine breeze from the S^E by E steering N^W all sail at 4 PM had a squall wind shifted to N^E at 6 wind E S^E middle part a fine breeze all sail. Latter part the sail in sight watch employed making span yards putting fore mast coat & wind

Latitude 29.13 N

Longitude 61.25 W

St Catharines Towards New Bedford 1865

[The following text is extremely faint and largely illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. It appears to be a multi-paragraph letter or report.]

[Faint lines of text, possibly a header or address.]

[Faint lines of text, possibly a salutation or opening paragraph.]

[Faint lines of text, possibly a body paragraph.]

[Faint lines of text, possibly a closing or signature area.]

[Faint lines of text, possibly a footer or additional notes.]

Bark Shovelboats on her Passage from Wednesday July 19th 1865

Begins with a fine breeze from the S E then very N W by W all soil at 2 P M hauled in stud-ing soils two soil in sight steering N E watch employed putting on chain over the boat making Spent noon in middle part steering N N W all soil. latter part wind S watch employed Painting the masts yards and other odd jobs

Latitude 29° 51' N

Thursday 20th

Longitude 63° 25' W

Begins with a fine breeze from the S then N N W all soil watch employed getting out meat Painting blocks for masts & middle part a fine breeze latter part watch employed washing ship inside one soil in sight wind S E
one soil in sight? Latitude 30° 31' N

Longitude 65° 18' W

Friday 21st Begins with a fine breeze from the S E steering N N by W all soil watch employed washing ship inside and out middle part a light breeze and fine weather latter part much the same wind S E watch employed painting ship inside

Latitude 30° 54' North

Longitude 66° 00' W

St Catherine's Throats New Bedford 186

Boat Swallow on her Passage from Saturday July 22nd 1865

Begins with a fine light breeze from the S.E. Steering N.W. all clearing sail watch employed Pointing Ship inside middle part
a light air latter part much the same employed remaining however overhead sails &c one sail in sight

Latitude 31.32 N

Sunday 23rd

Longitude 66.35

Begins with a light air from the S.W. and fine weather Steering N.W. by N all sail watch employed pointing in spots two sail in sight
middle part a light breeze from the S.W. latter part a fine breeze heading N.N.W. two sail in sight all sail

Latitude 32.22 N

Longitude 67.10 W

Monday 24th July Begins with a fresh breeze from the W heading N.N.W. all sail at 3 P.M. had a squall took in top gallant sails a strong breeze middle part a fresh breeze at 4 P.M. wind heeled to N.W. and veering latter part squally heading from N.N.E to N.N.W. with employed
ing tops tacking spars &c one sail in sight

Latitude 33.34 N

Longitude 67.55 W

Catharine's Journals New Bedford 1865

Bank Swashenks on Levee Bayou from

Tuesday July 25th 1865

Begins with a strong breeze from the NW & heeling N N W some squally weather employed painting in spots fitting up things getting out matters &c all soil except light soils at 3 P.M. soil in sight steering S S W middle part some squally wind heeled to N W and cleared up latter part all soil light breezy airs from N W to N N E painting in spots

Latitude 34.30 N

Wednesday 26th

Longitude 67.45 W

Begins with a light airs from N to N W and breezy back and forth heeling from W N W to S S W by W at 3 1/2 P.M. wind ship to N N E weather employed painting there & there middle part calm at 4 P.M. a light breeze from W N W heeling N W all soil latter part a fresh breeze employed at work for

Lat 34.50 S Longitude 68.15 W

Thursday 27th Begins with a fresh breeze from the W S W steering N W by the wind all soil weather employed at odd jobs two soil in sight at night took in light soils middle part a fresh breeze heeling N W by N latter part all soil weather employed washing and drying. None. one soil in sight

Latitude 35.56 N

Longitude 69.15 W

St. Catharines 119
Toronto New Bedford 1865

Barth Sturges on his Passage from Friday July 28th 1865

Begins with a fresh breeze from the W by S heaving N W by N all soil watch employed digging and tunnelling Bower and putting it below two soil in sight at night took in light soils middle part heaving from N W
by N to N wind light at 7 A M a Thunder squall from W S W double reefed 7th top soil Latter part fresh breeze heaving N

Latitude 36° 58' N

Longitude 69° 50' W

Saturday 29th Begins with a fresh breeze
from the W S W heaving N shock reef 7th top soil watch employed scraping top Masts painting Spade poles &c one soil in sight the middle part calm latter part a light breeze from the W S W heaving N W by N all soil watch employed getting out water cleaning up about decks &c

Latitude 37° 43' N

Sunday 30th

Longitude 68° 45' W

Begins with a fine breeze from W S W to S W all soil soil watch emp'd throwing dry works over board and cleaning up middle part wind light from the W heaving N N W at 4 A M calm at 9 a light air from the W heaving N N W
all soil

Latitude 38° 36' N

Longitude 69° 00' W

St Catharine's Horwells New Bedford

22

12

St Catharine's Horwells
New Bedford

Book Anwarthen on Lev. De page from

Monday July 31st 1865

Begins with a light breeze from the W to WNW heading from NNW to N at 3 1/2 P.M.
winds came out NE then back to NW by N one sail in sight middle part fresh breeze
all sail better part wind & steering N.W. by N watch employed, weighing boats clearing up and stowing below decks and one sail in sight

Latitude 40.08' N

Longitude 71.15 W

Tuesday August 1st 1865

Begins with a fine breeze from the E steering N by W two sail in sight employed at odd jobs at 2 1/2 P.M. hauled up by the winds heading N by E saw a Whale back standing to SE at 3 1/2 P.M.
Spoke New York Pilot Boat Charlotte Webb
No 5. bound in to New York

St. Catharines Harbour New Bedford 1865.

*Received of the Treasurer of the
St. Catharines Harbour
the sum of $100.00
for the purchase of land
for the purpose of building
a wharf for the use of the Harbour.*

*Witness my hand and seal
this 1st day of June 1865.
Attest
J. H. [Signature]*

*Received of the Treasurer of the
St. Catharines Harbour
the sum of $100.00
for the purchase of land
for the purpose of building
a wharf for the use of the Harbour.*

Names and Dates of Ships and Arrivals

1864	Dates	Name of Ship	Where Belonging	Master
	August 9	Leeds Bullimore	Bk Bullimore	Beacons
	Sept 29	Bk Cularo	N Belfast	Shawland
	Sept 30	Bk Bodene	Sag Harbor	Jennings
	October 6	Bk J & A Rob	" "	Jennings
	" 18	" Bullaro	N Belfast	36.30 Long
	" 19	Bk Tuero	Bremer	" 36.25 Long
	24	Bk J & A Rob	Sag Harbor	" "
November	7	Bk Cularo	New Bedford	38.47 Long
"	23	Ship Flewiler	" "	39.54 Long
1865	29	Ship J & Arnold	" "	35.25 Long
January	7	Bk J & Dawson	" "	34.25 Long
"	"	" J & A Rob	" "	" "
"	12	" Cularo	" "	35.05 Long
Feb	3	Bk Bask ^{Weymouth} ~~Weymouth~~	Weymouth	37.15 Long
	3	Br Ship Steetlie	St Johns N B	" ^{Weymouth}
	5	R. Du Schoon Abbotson	Bergen	38.20 Long
	6	Ship Currieda	Steffens C. Buttern	38.36 Long
	7	Bk L. L. L. L.	from Sunderland	39.17 Long
	12	Ship James	New Bedford	38.15 Long
	26	Bk A R. T. T.	"	35.45 Long
March	4	James	"	33.52 Long
		James	"	" " "
	24	Yentrick	from Sunderland	32.54 Long

Spoken by Bush & Ashmun of S. Medford.

Date of 18	Time out	Remarks.
Merchantmen	"	From Montevideo for Boston
550 S 850 Whole	26 Months	Breeding for Whole
Clocum	2 1/2 Months	" " "
230 S. 175 W	16 Months	" " "
53-50 W 3 Whales	"	" " "
53-30 W Merchantmen	"	From Buenos Ayres for Sydney
" " 3 Whales	"	Breeding
56-10 W 3 Whales	"	"
58-50 W 20 S 30 Whales	4 Months	Bound to N Pacific.
52-40 W 330 S 35 Whales	6 " "	Breeding
49-30 W 150 S	6 " "	"
" " 120 S	7 " "	"
51-50 130 S	8 " "	"
52-15 Merchantmen	"	For Melbourne
" " "	6 " "	" Calla with Cows
53-40	54 Days for N York for New Archangel	"
53-50 W	From Montevideo for Sydney	"
53-55 W	61 Days from Sandwich for Calla with Cows	"
52-45 W 1400 Bl. all	80 Days for S Lewis	Breeding
47-52 W 300 S 230 Whales	8 Months	Breeding
50-15 40 Bl. 1 Year	"	"
" " 130 S 1 Year	March 23 rd 700 All Told	Lat 33-30 Long 50-00 W
50-15	73 Days Sandwich for Calla with Cows & Cows	"

